"OREGON—The Union"

Prof. J. B. Horner, of the Oregon Agricultural College, has written a very interesting history of Oregon. It is a condensed version of the primary facts so set forth that every reader can glean in a few hours all that Oregon has ever been and is now. The small in size, it is large in worth and accuracy. Prof. Horner's "Oregon" should be in every Oregon home.

GOVERNOR BEN OLCOTT

Here's to you, Ben! You'll make the best governor Oregon ever had.

Mrs. Alpha Bascue, the Main Street Milliner, has her Spring Opening on Saturday, March 8.

A report that the mill at Falls City is to be moved has led to starting a story that it will be brought to Independence. Not very likely.

Monmouth Herald: Robbie Phillips, who has for several years been foreman of Walker Bros. hop ranch, has resigned the position and is moving his family to Monmouth.

The P. T. Association held a very interesting meeting at the public school building Tuesday afternoon. The history class entertained with a review of their work. Pertinent talks were given by Miss Houx, Principal Collins and others. A splendid crowd was present.

The Civic Club has started the Memorial Fund in honor of the heroes of the World War. Its members are wishing for ideas from all as to the most appropriate way to use the fund. The Post will gladly publish any suggestions any one wishes to make regarding the best way of honoring the soldiers and sailors.

A MOTHER'S DREAM OF HOME

Written by F. O. Parker while in the service.

She's glad to know her boys are soldiers,
She's proud they're fighting, land and sea,
She's wishing the little one was older,
So he could fight for Liberty.

His Daddy was a soldier
In the days of long ago,
And when McKinley called for volunteers,
He was the first to go.

And when the war was over,
The whole world honored him,
He was fighting for freedom,
And the enemy to trim.

She loves to see the soldiers marching,
They're filled with patriotic "pep",
In the regiment of soldiers,
Her boys line up in step.

When this war is over,
And her boys come marching in,
They will be among the leaders,
Of America's Great Men.

Her neighbors all will welcome them
When they return back home,
They'll say they all were heroes,
They did their "bit" across the foam.

But should they fall a victim,
While fighting over there,
The good Lord will receive them
Upon the Golden Stair.

It's the duty of each Mother,
To say unto her son,
"Go join the Colors now, my boy,
And fight till Victory's won."

This little Mother, both brave and true,
Her husband's in the Army, a veteran of two wars,
One of her sons fighting in France
And one a sailor boy,
Two little ones with her at home,
So she dries her tears with JOY.

"Go ahead and chew your sweet, sticky plug, if you like it. But there isn't an ordinary tobacco that's one, two, three with Real Gravelly. The real good tobacco taste stays with it." Good taste, smaller chew, longer life is what makes Genuine Gravelly cost less to show than ordinary plug.
