Don't forget to buy your garden tools at Craven & Huff's and get good value for the money.

Lee Robinson has discarded his Overland and is now seen with the ladies in his new Studebaker.

The Baldwin Sisters had a very enjoyable visit in Portland with relatives, returning home Wednesday.

Arch Sloper and family moved out to the farm this week. The McLeans will occupy their city home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, nee Anna Newton, to the joy of their many friends, have returned to Independence to make their home.

Monmouth Herald: Sam Morrison was operated on for a serious case of appendicitis in Dallas last week but is reported as improving.

The Post commissary department has said much complimentary of Mrs. Cora Hubbard's cake; it can now say as much concerning Mrs. Nellie Barnett's pies.

Polk County Observer: Mr. V. J. Love of Pedee was a Dallas business visitor on Monday. Last week the Williams Drug Co. called attention to the merits of Aladdin's Dye Soap and quite a number of our feminine population appeared this week in "new" clothes. To further the good work Elkay's Hat Dye is recommended and old hats, grimmed and dirty, can be renovated and made to do at least another season without disgrace to the wearer.

The Isis will be open every night next week presenting a miscellaneous program, a copy of which is found elsewhere in this Post. Besides the feature Paramount and Artercraft photo plays on Sunday, Wednesday and Friday, the American Players (of which more mention is made elsewhere in this Post) will be here for two nights and Bulger's Trained Animal Circus on Thursday night. Variety is the spice of life and the Isis deserves and will get a crowded house each night.

Occupying a prominent place in this issue of The Post is McIntosh's special grocery sale ad. While a large number of articles are listed, space would not permit of mentioning many other things to be found in the busy C street grocery which will be sold just as cheap. Housewives, who use every means to make a dollar go as far as possible in purchasing provisions for the family table will find this advertisement of much value to them. Remember the sale will continue until April 4. Then again, if this sale exceeds expectations and everybody takes advantage of the bargain prices, perhaps Mr. McIntosh may be encouraged to make these specials of very frequent occurrence and everybody profit thereby.

"It's your own fault if you get stung," says O'Connor

"Your own horse-sense ought to tell you what is the best value when a small chew of Real Graveley tastes so good, and lasts so much longer than a big

Good taste, smaller chew, longer life is what makes Genuine Graveley cost less to chew than ordinary plug.
