Misses Pearl Smith and Vale Hiltbrand are home for the summer vacation. Miss Smith will teach at Corvallis again next year and Miss Hiltbrand at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas are new residents of this city, having taken over the Independence Studio. Experienced in photography, they can expect a good business.

Miss Gretchen Kreamer arrived Saturday night from Ashland where she has been principal of one of the schools, a position she will retain next year at an increase in salary.

Miss Emma Henkle returned Tuesday night from Ogden, Utah, where she has taught the past year. She is delighted with the place and they are delighted with her as she has been retained for next year at an attractive increase in salary.

Earl Whiteaker was an arrival from overseas the first of the week with his discharge papers. The young man has grown about three feet since he left Independence and you had to look at him closely to recognize him.

Dr. H. C. Dunsmore, looking very much refreshed, returned last Saturday from a vacation trip in British Columbia. The doctor came home a little ahead of schedule owing to the strike in Canada—he was a bit afraid that he might have to walk home if train service was annulled.

Clark Mansfield, who has been butter maker at the Independence Creamery for the past two years, severed his connection with that institution today and has gone to Gray River, Wash., where he takes a similar position. Mrs. Mansfield and children will remain here until he finds a house.

THE BEST OF PICTURES AT ISIS NEXT WEEK

(Continued from Page 1.) most repulsive characters that has ever been represented on the screen. Article by article, down to the last filmy garment, her clothes are removed, despite her protests and despite her desperate struggles. The scene has been photographed thru a diaphragm of silk, and the two characters appear in silhouette. It is remarkable, too, that so realistically has the situation been worked out that there is not even the slightest suggestion that this truly sensational bit has been "dragged in by the heels" to pander to tastes which are low and depraved. Those who were fortunate enough to have seen the first installment of Martin Johnson's "Cannibals of the South Seas" will be pleased that the final installment will be shown Thursday night, June 19. However, it is not necessary to have seen the first installment to enjoy the second. This picture is certainly unique and holds an audience to the end.

D. W. Griffith's splendid new Artcraft picture, "The Greatest Thing in Life," an artistic triumph, is the attraction for Sunday night, June 22. The story which deals with love and war in this country and France proves delightful while the situations are dramatic, thrilling and ap-

Death for the Huns who were beating down the door. Life for the American girl, trapped behind it. And for the American boy, who led the Yanks, the one who threw the grenade, the greatest thing in life.

What is the greatest thing in life? Victory? The veteran's first view of the Statue of Liberty after the end of the war? Or—just what is it? Griffith will show you in the newest production from the hand of the genius who made "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance," "Hearts of the World" and "The Great Love."

The Boy Scouts

In his sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning, Rev. Cook introduced the plans of the Boy Scouts. He urged all citizens who were given an opportunity to do their part in the support of the movement. The Scout laws and teachings will certainly make a better boy than his less fortunate comrade who has not enjoyed the teachings of honor, uprightness, pluck, perseverance, energy, courage, obedience, kindness and cleanliness. H. Hirschberg was appointed by Wm. G. McAdoo as local manager of the local Scout Week. Rev. Cook, Scout Master, announces that the boys all hope to have their uniforms for the Big Celebration July 4. They have been added to the reception committee.

GUY PAUL PRATHER RECEIVES PLAUDITS AT GRADUATION

(Continued from Page 1.) In his eloquent presentation speech B. F. Swope urged the young genius to continue his art until he was recognized as a master. He also paid a pretty tribute to the instructor, Mrs. Lottie H. McIntosh, who has been the successful factor in guiding the boy to the goal he has reached. The large audience recognized that she had worked with unstinted zeal to give the young man a successful start upon a professional career.

Guy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prather of Buena Vista. They plan to send their boy to the Chicago Conservatory to continue his art.

The ushers for the evening were the Misses Alma Wells and Marjory Reynolds of Buena Vista.

Admiring friends presented the young pianist with floral offerings which he graciously accepted.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK

YOU'VE HEARD A LOT ABOUT "A FISHERMAN'S LUCK". ANY FISHERMAN WHO HAS ANY "LUCK" MUST BE WELL EQUIPPED WITH THE RIGHT KIND OF TACKLE. THAT'S WHY MANY GO FISHING AND COME HOME WITH NOTHING BUT A "STORY". WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF FISHING SUPPLIES—FROM THE HOOK TO THE OTHER END OF THE LINE. WE HAVE ALL THE "TRINKETS" THAT ENTICE THE FISH TO COME CLOSE ENOUGH TO THE HOOK TO BE CAUGHT. MOST ALL GOOD FISHERMEN BUY THEIR SUPPLIES AT OUR STORE—THAT'S WHY THEY'RE "GOOD". JUST THE OTHER DAY SAYS CRAVEN TO HUFF: "GUESS I'LL GO OUT AND CATCH A STRING OF TROUT". SAYS HUFF TO CRAVEN: "YOU CAN DO IT IF YOU'LL FIRST FISH AROUND IN THE SHO WCASE AND GET YOUR TACKLE". AND CRAVEN DID AND WENT FORTH PROPERLY EQUIPPED AND HE CAME BACK WITH THE BEST STRING OF FISH EVER SHOWN IN INDEPENDENCE. THIS HINT TO THE WISE SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT.
