

INDEPENDENCE 4TH CELEBRATION ABANDONED

The Fourth of July celebration for Independence has been abandoned. A few hours before it was called off, a good band had been secured from Portland, final arrangements made for a flight of an airplane over the town and two and perhaps three companies of the national guard had agreed to come over from Salem and march in the parade without fee or expense and between fifteen and thirty floats from the Salem parade would have been entered in the parade here.

A number of Civic Club ladies, including chairmen of various committees, met this morning and at the suggestion of the president of the Club voted unanimously to give up the celebration.

PIANO AND VOICE PUPILS IN ANNUAL RECITAL

A large and highly appreciative audience gathered at the M. E. church last Friday evening to enjoy the annual recital of the piano and voice pupils of Mrs. Lottie Hedges McIntosh. Artistic decorations of red rambler roses with ferns with "Old Glory" for a background made the stage a picture of loveliness. The first part of the program was given over to the beginners, the youngest appearing being Frederick Hewett who is only eight years of age. In the second part the more advanced pupils were presented. Thruout the program the performers played so well that the audience marvelled at the ease and skill with which the numbers were rendered. Voice pupils who appeared displayed good quality of tone and were generously applauded. Guy Prather, a recent graduate, rendered Chopin's "Polonaise" and received an ovation. The splendid work of the teacher in her assiduous efforts to advance each individual was evinced by the marked advancement of those who had been studying for some time. And it was very interesting to note how quickly she makes the beginners grasp her methods. Those appearing on the program were Dorothy Ruef substituting for Margaret Ziesch, Ruth Tethrow, Mildred Tethrow, Pauline Perry, Letha Womer, Clara Fleming, Fredrick Hewett, Opal Hewett, Dottie Womer, Marilou Meyers, Edna Burch, Lucile Cook, Trula Grant, Lennie Burch, Luetta Baker, Bernice Burright, Hazel Butler, Bessie Plessinger, Guy Prather, Ernest Chown, Vera Wilson, Goldia Hooker, Emma Ziesch, Alma Wells, Helen Jones and Edith Plessinger.

hospitality with the hostess and her assistants. Those who attended from here were Mrs. J. S. Cooper, Miss Genevieve Cooper, Miss Arbuthnot, Mrs. Conkey, Mrs. Clark, Miss Emma Henkle, Mrs. O. D. Butler and Mrs. Clyde Ecker.

CONSTRUCTION IS COMMENCED ON STATE'S "MODEL FARM"

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 27—Ground has been broken preparatory to the construction of buildings for the first unit farm of the Oregon land settlement commission, three miles southwest of Independence. The farmstead contains 3 1/2 acres and will have the farmhouse, barn, machine shed, poultry and hog houses, with an ample home vegetable garden and family orchard. The farm comprises 60 acres of gently rolling land, the majority of which has north and east slope and is well drained. It is the plan to have this diversified farm that one man and family can handle. A definite crop rotation is also considered an important feature in the plan. At present the whole tract is covered with growing wheat which was planted immediately after the purchase of the site last fall. H. D. Scudder, chief in farm management at the college and agricultural advisor of the commission, assisted by Clair Wilkes and Palmer Patton of the department of farm management, spent several days at the farm going over plans.

FORMER INDEPENDENCEITES MARRY AT STAYTON

(Polk County Observer.) Mr. W. R. Tapscott of this city and Miss Bess Kennard of Stayton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, H. J. Rowe of Stayton, on Wednesday, the Rev. W. T. Tapscott, father of the groom, performing the ceremony. The young married couple, after a trip of several days to the coast, will take up their permanent residence on Mr. Tapscott's farm near Dallas.

CIVIC CLUB EXTENDS THANKS TO THE MANY WORKERS

The Civic Club takes this means of thanking all those who were working to make the celebration a success. Especially do we thank Monmouth people for the entertainment they were to feature and the Normal students who had already begun work on stunts and merriment for the occasion and Buena (Continued on Page 4.)
