On Monday and Tuesday (June 30 and July 1) "The Red Lantern" is the attraction. It is a play of mysterious China that gives Nazimov, a dual role of unathomable depths, a range of her rare artistry. It is a play of deep undercurrents, telling the story of a Eurasian girl—the daughter of two races—who feels the eternal conflict of the alien bloods forever raging within her soul. It is a theme to wake the pulses of the heart and fill the imagination with the irresistible lure of secret Asia—and all children should see it. The Saturday night's bill consists of Henry B. Walthall in "The Long Lane's Turning," a comedy. "The Girl in the Box" and a scenic, "Columbia, the Gem of Highways." The independence section and every body will be glad to see him Sunday night. (July 6) in one of his best pictures, "Branding Broadway." It is a "Jim Dandy" picture. There is a "The Dub" in which Wallace Field appears Wednesday night and this dub is in love. In fact, some people say that if you're in love, you are a dub. A Mack Sennett comedy, "Cupid's Day Off" is also on the bill.
