NEXT WEEK AT THE ISIS

Undoubtedly the prettiest moving picture actress of the age, Marguerite Clark, is booked for Sunday night in that immensely popular playlet, "Little Miss Hoover." In fact, the number of movie fans is growing rapidly who think that Marguerite Clark has it over Mary Pickford in every way.

"Oh You Women!", the special for Monday and Tuesday nights is not a war picture, but an after-war picture. It shows what was done after the war was won—how the women wanted to hang to their jobs while the men did the housework. It is a five reel comedy that will bring a smile to the faces of all the "hard boiled" in town and the rest laughing. It will please every class of women because it pokes good humored fun at certain exaggerated types—not those who see the picture, of course, but next door neighbors. It's all about what happened to the village of Fremont, Pennsylvania, when the feminist movement cut loose in it. The women were content to let the men settle the destinies of the universe in the village grocery store until the war came along and put them in trousers. It was a hard job to get the women into trousers. But, oh, the job the men have in getting their pants back.

Wallace Reid's newest picture, "Alias Mike Moran" will be shown Wednesday night. Larry Young deceives his sweetheart, his friends and his country by sending another man in his place when he is drafted. Then he has to leave town to make his deception stick. His man goes over, fights and is killed and dies a hero's death. Then Larry is in a pickle. To the world, and his sweetheart, he is a dead man. But can he face them? But there are times in a man's life when he turns on the devil within him. How Wallace Reid turned the trick is admirably shown. A delightful romance is woven into the story and the picture closes with a finish that will please the most critical. In addition there is a Flagg comedy, "Berensford of the Baboons." This is a delightful travesty on the Darwin theory and the recent Tarzan pictures.

Following a dark Thursday night comes Pauline Frederick as Emma Brooks in "Paid in Full." Emma is the wife of Joe Brooks, a clerk, in the employ of Captain Williams. Joe takes advantage of a trip of Captain Williams' to South America and steals some money, covering up the defalcation by manipulating the books. From a cheap flat the Brooks move to a luxurious apartment. Emma is ignorant of the reason for the sudden prosperity. Then Williams comes back and discovers the theft. Joe realizes that his game is up. He knows that Williams is fond of Emma, and that offers to him the way out. "Go," he says to Emma, "and fix it with Williams—any way you can." The developing situation is one of the most dramatic ever conceived. This is Fatty Arbuckle's regular night. He appears in "Moonshine," a delightful concoction filled with laughs galore. As a revenue officer Fatty goes after a band of moonshiners and bags his game.

Saturday night's bill consists of a comedy, an Outing Chester and Billie Rhodes in "The Love Call." The latter is a tale of "Kid" Allen, rough-neck daughter of a drunken frontiersman—left a penniless orphan in a wild country—who surrenders her ambition for an education and gives in to the call of the mountains and goes back to the man of her dreams.

WE TOLD YOU SO

Some time ago we told you that you had better get a Clark Jewel Oil Stove. Some of you did and some of you didn't. Those who did are having a nice cool time in the kitchen these many sultry warm days—cooking is a pleasure—and those who didn't are either smothering over a hot cook stove, starving the family or eating out of a can. Its not yet too late to buy a Clark Jewel of us—but we can't say that the same old price will last much longer. Everything appears to be going up.

GRAVEN & HUFF HDW. CO.

He plays the part of a country guy who falls in love with a circus man's daughter and so gets mixed up with the goin's on in the sawdust ring, and before you know it he's showing a bunch of tricks that make the performers themselves gape like a gang of hayseeds.
