

WHAT'S THE USE OF RETURNING FROM YOUR VACATION
SUNBURNED
AND FRECKLED

Fortify yourself against these unpleasant things before you leave with a supply of toilet creams and lotions. We can furnish just what is needed for your complexion and you will return with "a skin you love to touch."

Williams' Drug Co.

"Home of the Grafonola"

PERFECT SERVICE PURE DRUGS

CITY AND COUNTRY

Tripp writes fire insurance.

Mrs. F. C. Eddy is at Newport.

Dean Walker was here Sunday.

Thelma Williams is visiting at Airlie.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway are here, from Tacoma.

Mrs. Sarah Young went to Albany last Tuesday.

Mrs. G. G. Walker returned Sunday from Seattle.

Mrs. J. S. Cooper, Jr., spent the week in Portland.

Harry Miller visited in Portland and Seaside this week.

Get your lunch at the Independence Bakery and Restaurant.

Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler are spending their annual vacation at Waldport.

Miss Vivian Whiteaker went to Portland Friday to remain for some time.

J. G. McIntosh is paying 7 and 7½ cents for blackberries, cash or trade.

H. Hirschberg and Al Kullander spent a few days last week at Foley Springs.

Mrs. Shallenberger of Portland is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Robertson.

Miss Kathryn Arbuthnot returned Monday from a weeks outing at Cascade.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Baughman were here from Oregon City at the Dornisfe home.

Mrs. H. S. Bulloch and children returned to their home in San Francisco last Tuesday.

Miss Emma Henkle returned Monday from Roseburg where she visited for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kreamer have returned from a visit in Portland and other Oregon points.

Miss Margaret Goodin of Salem is the guest of Mrs. Freda Campbell at the Boydston home.

Mrs. F. O. Parker and children, Franklin and Grace, spent the week with Woodburn friends.

Mrs. F. E. Dickson and young son, Ray Clark, and Mrs. Stillwell, spent the week end in Portland.

Clean and substantial meals and lunches served at all hours at the Independence Bakery and Restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sloper and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Robbie returned Sunday from a week's outing at Blue River.

Miss Genevieve Cooper was a guest at a house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hendricks in Salem this week.

The Independence Bakery and Restaurant is now open and ready to serve meals and lunches. Fresh bakery goods a specialty.

Mrs. G. R. Newton returned to her home in Portland Friday after spending the Summer with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Bulloch.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, who have been the guests of Mrs. Sarah Nelson for several weeks, have returned to their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hembree are here from California. In company with Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler they spent the week end in Portland.

Miss Frances Townsend is employed as a stenographer and bookkeeper at the Sellers crockery house in Portland.

Miss Velma Whiteaker is a saleslady at the same place.

Miss Eleanor Crouder of Union and Miss Bessie True-love of Tallman are the guests of Miss Emma Henkle.

O. A. Kreamer is in Sunfield, Michigan, visiting his father. It has been a number of years since he has seen his aged father and the visit will mean much to them both.

Clark Mansfield was here from Grays River, Wash., the first of the week. He has accepted a position with a creamery at The Dalles and expects to move his family there soon.

Mrs. Alpha Bascue spent last week in Portland attending millinery openings. This week she is enjoying a rest at Seaside. On her return she will have her fall hats ready for inspection.

Mrs. K. C. Eldridge returned Tuesday evening from a visit with Portland relatives. While there she was a guest at the breakfast given by the Progressive Business Men's Club at Eagle Creek for the National Editorial party.

Monmouth Herald: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thorp of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brinkley of Seattle are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson, who are the parents of the ladies. Mr. Brinkley is just back from overseas.

Vern Wolfe of Portland is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Wolfe. Altho but a mere boy, Vern is an expert window trimmer and card sign writer. He has held a responsible position in Portland for over two years this being his first vacation. Mr. Wolfe and Vern are planning a fishing trip and "dad" has announced that he will leave "Ma" Wolfe and daughter, Fay, at home to look after the chickens during their absence.

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. W. I. Reynolds is spending her vacation at Newport.

Mrs. E. J. Anderson attended camp meeting below Salem Sunday.

Mrs. M. V. Prather spent the week end with her son, Lair and wife, in Portland.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Ed Prather Tuesday and picked wool.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lichty and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reynolds visited at McMinnville Sunday.

Robert Mutts and daughter and Mrs. Snyder of Salem visited Mrs. N. C. Anderson Sunday.

Alfred Loy returned Monday from a six weeks stay in California where he had been in an officers' training camp.

Dorothy Ruef returned to her home in Independence Saturday after spending a week with Ruth Prather.

Mildred Hall and friend of Portland are visiting Mildred's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hall, this week.

Mrs. Bohna and children, who visited her parents for several months, returned to their home in Blaine Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cameron and children returned to their home in Westfall by way of Portland and The Dalles.

The air planes are getting to be quite numerous as there has been seven passed over our community the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Anderson of McMinnville and Elsie and Orrin Jewett of Vancouver, Wash., spent Sunday at the N. C. Anderson home.

NEXT WEEK AT THE ISIS

On Monday and Tuesday nights, Sessue Hayakawa is presented in "The Temple of Dusk," one of the most dramatic roles of his successful career. The story in its initial phases develops the love of Akira, a young Japanese poet and dreamer for Ruth Dale, a sensitive and delicate child. She turns to a man of her own race whom she marries. Three years later, unhappy, neglected and ill, her husband's interest centered in another, she slowly fades away. On her death bed she entrusts the care of her young daughter to Akira. The next year the little girl's father marries again and a few months later shoots a man whom he finds with his wife. Not wanting the disgrace of the prison to come to the father of Blossom, his little charge, Akira takes upon himself the guilt for the crime. In prison he hears that the child is ill and breaks prison that he may go to see her. He is pursued and mortally wounded. He manages to get to the little girl's home and although he is suffering excruciating agonies from his wound he attempts to amuse little Blossom till he "passes out" with his head on the little girl's pillow.

Draw softly the curtain from the past, your own past, hiding the most intimate dreams that remain in memory; recall that period of your life which is subtly sweet in retrospect but which perchance, is revived in the mind by simply a bundle of faded letters, in childish handwriting, bound round with a bit of ribbon, or a pressed rose between the yellowing leaves of an old book. This is what "Puppy Love", the new Paramount picture in which dainty Lila Lee stars, does for those who see it on the screen Wednesday night. It is a romance of youth and summer time; of moonlight and the garden wall—of the tragedies and joys of young love before life in all its meaning opens before the vision. It may be of interest to her many admirers to learn that Lila Lee is not "sweet sixteen"—she lacks a few days. The comedy for the same evening is Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in "The Amateur Liar." It appears in this playlet that Henry was some liar to his wife—as many husbands are. There will be a good show on Thursday night, the title and star not being known at this time.

John Barrymore is with us on Friday night in one of those high class comedy-dramas with action in every foot of the film and with a laugh every rod. Barrymore is a master in humorous situations and in "Here Comes the Bride" there is a wealth of humor that will keep you laughing and will send you away grinning, to chuckle when you think of it afterwards. Briefly, that he may get enough money to marry the girl he loves, Barrymore agrees to marry a widow, who is to leave him immediately after the ceremony and secure a divorce within the year. Then the girl he loves asks him to marry her at once. On this night, Fatty Arbuckle makes his appearance in "The Bell Boy" and portrays the laughable characteristics of a combination bell boy, waiter, barber, elevator operator and general utility man and yet finds time to hold hands with the manicurist.

Saturday night William Desmond appears in "Whitewashed Walls," a laughable yarn of the adventures of a nerve young American in a South American country. He slapped the governor on the back and invited him out to have a drink and because he had so much brass he was saved from being shot.

That it isn't a good idea to change husbands without genuine consideration is the advice of the picture, "Don't Change Your Husband," to be shown Sunday night, Aug. 26. It is the companion of "Old Wives For New." Suppose a beautiful and refined woman, with romance as one of the compelling motives of her life; a husband who is immersed with business, unintentionally neglectful and inclined to carelessness. Then imagine a handsome, romantic and convincing young man who appreciates the situation and is overwhelmed by his admiration for the wife. Suppose the wife, swayed by the fine speeches and the result of odious comparisons, leaving her husband and marrying the interloper, who is at best, a trifter. Then consider her position when the second spouse proves selfish, is inclined

Whereas, the returns of the golden harvest have commenced to come in, of which a certain share should be used for improvement, comfort and happiness, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that a committee consisting of myself and wife shall visit our kitchen at the earliest possible moment and carefully examine everything therein for the purpose of listing the worn out or defective utensils so that the same can be replaced by new.

Be IT Further Resolved, that after purchasing all the utensils provided for in the preceding paragraph at Craven & Huff's hardware store, Independence, Oregon, we will also purchase any other articles that we may find in said store that will contribute to the comfort, convenient or happiness of ourselves the coming winter.

Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be published in The Polk County Post so that all may read them and visit the store of Craven & Huff and sign said resolutions.

to stray while meantime the first husband reforms, becomes as neat as a pin and saves her from a disgraceful situation as the result of another woman's entrance into No. 2's affections. This in general is the story of "Don't Change Your Husband."

PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY OPEN

A. Thomas, long years experienced photographer, has opened the Independence Studio and will do all kinds of work in a pleasing and satisfactory manner.

DOCTOR
M. P. MENDELSON
OPTOMETERIST-OPTICIAN

Carefully and Scientifically Corrects Defects of Vision.

He is known all over the state of Oregon as an authority on optics. Nearly one-third of a century of practical experience.

PORTLAND
Suite 414-415 Failing Bldg.
S. E. Cor. Third and Washington.
Phone M. 3630

Max Goldman Deals in

- HIDES
- FELTS
- WOOL
- FURS
- MOHAIR
- CASCARA BARK
- VEAL
- PORK
- BEEF
- POULTRY
- BUTTER
- EGGS
- FARM PRODUCE
- WOOD
- GROCERIES
- SHOES
- FURNISHINGS
- DRY GOODS

CASH OR TRADE

The Polk County Post was entered as second class matter March 26, 1918, at the postoffice at Independence, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The Independence National Bank
Established 1889

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

Officers and Directors
H. Hirschberg, Pres. D. W. Sears, V. P.
Ira D. Mix, Cashier
W. H. Walker I. A. Allen O. D. Butler

A Successful Business Career of Twenty-Five Years

VALLEY & SILETZ TIME TABLE

Effective April 1, trains will run as follows:
No. 2 arrives from Hoskins 9:15 A. M. daily
No. 4 arrives from Camps 4:00 P. M. daily except Sunday
No. 1 departs for Camps 10:50 A. M. daily except Sunday
No. 3 departs for Hoskins 4:15 P. M. daily
Freight service 2:30 P. M. on Tuesdays and Saturdays

SWOPE & SWOPE LAWYERS

I. O. O. F. Building
Independence, Oregon