Told by the Bank Book

A TEMPORARY TIDE-OVER

BETWEEN harvest and marketing days there sometimes comes a time when the farmer needs a little more than a "moral" support from his bank. The Farmers State Bank appreciates that need, and if it be legitimate, is glad to lend a financial hand in the emergency.

Start now and grow up with the "Headquarters Bank."

"Ever Occur to You?"
says the Good Judge

That it's foolish to put up with an ordinary chew, when it doesn't cost any more to get real tobacco satisfaction.

Every day more men discover that a little chew of real good tobacco lasts longer and gives them real contentment.

There's nothing like it.

A Galaxy of Good Pictures

SUNDAY, AUG. 24—"DON'T CHANGE YOUR HUSBAND." Which is the worst, a wife's uncombed hair or a husband's unshaved face? Which would you rather see, a faded kimono or a coatless, bedraggled man? Cecil B. DeMille "stripped the four walls from married life" in "Old Wives for New." He's at it again in "Don't Change Your Husband", but this time the husband "gets his." The man who "trimmed the market" wouldn't trim his beard—and it cost him his wife.

MONDAY, AUG. 25—BESSIE BARRISCALE in "Tangled Threads." A woman who tried to put it over and couldn't on a husband who put it over regularly.

TUESDAY, AUG. 26—"WHAT EVERY WOMAN WANTS"—and Ross and Chester say, "it's a bear." Now what is it she wants? Her own way or the last word or the moon and all the stars or a couple of automobiles or plenty of cats? You don't know? Neither do we—but we'll find out Tuesday night in one of the greatest pictures ever screened.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 27—BRYANT WASHBURN in "Poor Boob." He loses his canning factory and his girl cans him for the man who canned him out of his cannery. Instead of going crazy, he goes to the Big Town. There he gets the Big Idea, and goes back to his native burg posing as a millionaire. What happens then will not do to tell. Mack Sennett Comedy, "The Village Smithy." She courted him with a roll that would choke a horse, but he didn't know about the roll. If he had, this picture would have never been.

THURSDAY, AUG. 28—Fox Picture, "This Is the Life" and a Sunshine Comedy.

FRIDAY, AUG. 29—ELSIE FERGUSON in "His Parisian Wife." Martin Wesley's people came from Boston and they didn't know anything about French girls, but had their suspicions. And then Martin brought back Fauvette as his wife and they were shocked. From beautiful, naughty Paris to proud, conservative and dignified Boston is "some jump." But Elsie Ferguson does it neatly and effectively.

SATURDAY, AUG. 30—HENRY WALTHALL in "Modern Husbands." Busy, money making husbands and idle wives, who find amusement in the attentions of love pirates, provide the characters for this tense drama of high society and high finance.

SUNDAY, AUG. 31—WILLIAM S. HART in "Breed of Men." You can hardly reconcile your idea of this hell-bent-for-election Westerner with that of a romantic cow-puncher, could you? Well, it's a fact! See what chances he takes for a girl in "Breed of Men." After going thru some of the greatest thrills and fights ever shown on the screen, he takes the big chance in a great climax and asks the "Big Question." It's a man's yarn about a man's man—but take this hunch—it's a woman's yarn, too.

AMERICAN LEGION BRANCH FOR SOUTH POLK

For the purpose of making preliminary arrangements to form a branch of the American Legion in south Polk county, a score of the veterans of the world war met last Monday evening with Ray M. Walker chairman and Glen C. Smith secretary. The next meeting will be held on next Monday night, Aug. 25, and all veterans from Independence, Monmouth, Airlie, Suver, Buena Vista, Orville and Greenwood are urged to be present.

The American Legion membership will consist of former members of the army and navy during the world war, regardless of rank, or whether they were abroad or not. It is similar in purpose to the Spanish-American War Veterans and the Grand Army of the Republic. Every ex-soldier or ex-sailor will find it much to his advantage to affiliate, and as this part of Polk county furnished over 200 men for the world war, a strong and live branch can be organized at Independence.

It is hoped that all who possibly can do so will be present Monday night and assist in getting the branch started.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Numerous couples will wed very soon.

Mrs. D. P. Taylor of Lompoc, Cal., is a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. E. Craven.

Somebody stole the family wash off the clothes line at the C. W. Irvine home one night this week. Petty thievery is becoming a habit with somebody.

Paving of the Main street fill was completed yesterday. The stretch will be thrown open to traffic on Sept. 20. City officials are much pleased with the job. The work was quickly done.

Floyd Senter of Lane county has been selected to succeed Josiah Wells as school supervisor of Polk county. Mr. Wells takes the place of Fred Crowley as county superintendent.

Monmouth Herald: Miss Gaynelle Shore of Monmouth and Jay Knapp of Portland were married in this city Sunday morning. Both of the young people are recent graduates of the Monmouth high school and are well known and popular among the young people of the city.

A partial family reunion in number but very complete in pleasure was participated in at the F. G. Hewitt home last week end. Captain and Mrs. C. O. Wainscott were present as was Mrs. Mack, a sister of Mrs. Hewitt. Captain Wainscott, a brother of Mrs. Hewitt, has just returned from France. During the visit not an idle minute was passed, the hours being crowded with visiting and enjoying the Hewitt home hospitality.

Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh will speak at the Baptist church on Tuesday evening, Aug. 26, at 8 p. m. in behalf of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society. Her topic will be, "A Peep Behind the Scenes" with the story of "Freckles." Mrs. Unruh is a woman of national reputation and a good speaker. The admission is free and the public is cordially invited.

Last Sunday morning at the Methodist church, Rev. Gallagher of Hermiston spoke to a large congregation. A male quartette from Willamette University furnished the music. In the evening another university student spoke and the same quartette rendered some very pleasing numbers. Rev. Cook brought the young ministers over from Salem in his fiver.

FORMER INDEPENDENCE GIRL MISS RUTH HODGES MARRIES

At high noon on Wednesday, Aug. 20, at the home of the brides parents in Salem, Miss Ruth Hodges, a former resident of this city, was united in marriage to Edward Paul Todd of Tacoma. The father of the groom, Rev. E. H. Todd, of Tacoma, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Todd will reside in Tacoma where the gentleman is principal of a high school. Those from Independence who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Craven, Dean Craven, Mrs. O. A. Kremer, Miss Gretchen Kremer and B. E. Smith.

HOP OUTLOOK FOR YEAR 1919 WITH HARVEST NEAR AT HAND

(Salem Journal.)
Hop yards report no trouble in registering enough pickers to handle the crop this year. While there may be some picking in a few yards early next week, the season in general will not open until the first week in September. Pickers will be paid 60 cents a box, an advance of 10 cents over that of last year. The
