"Don't Cheat Yourself" says the Good Judge

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobacco goes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through. Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.

GOOD SHOWS ALL THE TIME

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK

MONDAY, SEPT. 8—HERBERT RAWLINSON and PRISCILLA DEAN in "Kiss or Kill"—the inside story of a silk lined crook. A thrilling tale of city life and the struggles of a girl beset by poverty and temptation and a discharged veteran of the World War confronted with the alternative of stealing or starving.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 9—The popular Western idol, HARRY CAREY in "Roped." Can you imagine a wild, Western cowpuncher fresh from the Western plains going to New York and marrying a beautiful young Society debutante? And then can you imagine what happened when "Cheyenne Harry" learned he was roped? You'll get one of the biggest fullest evenings of superfine photoplay enjoyment you've had in many a month.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 10—ENID BENNETT in "Partners Three." She was cold to all love; she had worked in the cabarets too long to think that there was such a thing; then on the hot, parched sands of the Arizona desert, where few men had ever trod, she found the love she had sought in vain amidst the city's teeming millions. Mack Sennett comedy, "Reilly's Wash Day." There's a plot in this riot, but who cares about the plot?

THURSDAY, SEPT. 11—Fox Special and Sunshine Comedy. These pictures will be very good.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 12—BILLIE BURKE in "Good Gracious Annabelle." Billie in repose is a wonderfully life-like French bisque doll; therefore she is a soothing human vision to behold. Like all girls who never grew up, she doesn't like those who refuse to take her seriously. The name's enough—she needs no further introduction.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13—BILLIE RHODES as "Boots" in "The Lamb and the Lion." Born a lady, reared in a den of thieves, taught to be a house breaker, transplanted into a home of aristocratic refinement, "Boots" has many exciting experiences.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 14—FRED STONE in "Johnny Get Your Gun." All you want to know before you get your hat to come down and see this picture is that Fred Stone is in it, and he's so full of high spirits and tricks that you would think he was drunk—but he isn't, it's just Fred and his ways.

RAIN PROHIBITS START OF HOP PICKING

Hop picking, scheduled to be on in full blast today at all the yards, has been set back several days by rain. Such rain as we have had does no particular damage other than retard the harvest. Coming as it did just at the beginning, it is discouraging and uncomfortable to many pickers. So the rays of the sun will be very much welcomed.

It is estimated that the total yield in Oregon for the year 1919 will be between 40,000 and 45,000 bales and all of this, excepting possibly ten percent, has been sold at contract prices ranging from 20 to 50 cents a pound. The average yield will be about 1200 pounds to the acre. On the Mitoma ranch it may run as high as two thousand. The ups and downs of hop raising is exemplified by remembering that just one year ago, they could not be sold for ten cents. Today, 55 cents is being offered and buyers would give 60 for choice lots without much urging. A world shortage caused this years good prices and the world will still be short next year.

OREGON RURAL CARRIERS MEET HERE

The Oregon Rural Carriers Association held its 17th annual convention in Independence on Monday, Sept. 1. The business of the convention included placing the capital stock of its co-operative buying association at $5000 and establish business headquarters at Beaverton. W. H. Boyd of Beaverton was elected a delegate to the national convention at Minneapolis, Sept. 21, at which time he will consider the salary adjustment question with a committee appointed by the U. S. Senate.

The next state convention will be held at Corvallis on Labor Day in 1920 and among the officers elected was Ed Wunder of Independence who was chosen second vice president.

The delegates were entertained at dinner at the Methodist church by the local postoffice force and business men. Postmaster Wood of Independence, Postmaster Parker of Monmouth and Carriers Wunder and Dickinson acted as hosts of the day and gave the visiting carriers a very pleasing reception.

ENDS LIFE BY JUMPING IN WELL

S. E. Craber, a resident of North Independence, committed suicide Thursday night by jumping head first into a well, forty feet deep, located on his premises. When discovered his feet were protruding above the water. Mr. Craber had not been in his right mind for some time and had repeatedly threatened to kill himself. He was about 65 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. Funeral services were held Sunday.

COUNTY TELEPHONE SYSTEMS COMBINED

The company owning the Independence telephone system last week purchased the systems at Dallas and Falls City. Mr. Richardson, who has been manager here for several months, has been transferred to Dallas. Dean Baughman becomes head lineman in Independence and Mrs. Baughman is given a responsible position with headquarters in Independence. Mr. and Mrs. Baughman are much welcomed back to their old home.
