BEGIN YOUR PLANNING

IT is not too early to look forward to the 1920 operations, Mr. Farmer. Perhaps you will want to improve the place, increase the live stock, introduce a little corn on the farm or adopt berry raising.

-And of course you know a good place to gain practical co-operation is at the "Headquarters Bank"—the Farmers State.

GOOD SHOWS OUR HOBBY

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK

MONDAY, SEPT. 15—MARY MacLAREN in "Vanity Pool." A lavishly invested play with many stunning creations worn by the feminine stars. You will see bewitching Mary at her best and it will be proven to your satisfaction that truth is stranger than fiction.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 16—"The Serial Queen," GRACE CUNARD in "After the War." Not a picture of battle or bloodshed but a drama of peace—and the terrific situation which a question brought to a noble woman and her soldier sweetheart. A most beautiful love story, packed with those human thrills that only genuine drama can create, superbly acted and produced regardless of expense.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17—VIVIAN MARTIN in "Little Comrade." When Bobbie saw Genevieve overcome every obstacle in milking a cow he said, "Gosh! That dame's got grit. She'd make SOME sweetheart!" That's how she got her beau. Sh! Girls! Maybe this picture has a hint for you. MR. AND MRS. SIDNEY DREW in "Harold, The Last of the Saxons." When they got stage-struck "Polly" played the part of another man's wife and "Henry" watching from the wings proceeded to stop the show.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 11—Fox Special and Sunshine Comedy. These pictures will be very good.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19—CHARLES RAY in "The Sheriff's Son." On one side, a whole gang of cattle thieves who live by their guns and love nothing better than a bloody battle. On the other side, a city youth who's "afraid of his shadow" and a girl. Who wins? Say, men! You want to see the scrap this natural born "fraidy cat" puts up. FATTY ARBUCKLE in "Good Night, Nurse." "Fatty" has lots of fun at a sanitarium.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 20—BESSIE BARRISCALE in "Joselyn's Wife" and a roaring comedy.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21—MARGUERITE CLARK in "Three Men and a Girl." Sylvia knows a thing or two about men. Sylvia knows a thing or two that you ought to know. Sylvia can take a confirmed "woman hater" and lead him around like a puppy. It's good to know what Sylvia knows. Sylvia is Marguerite Clark. With some girls, men are daring Romeos; with others they are grouches. All you girls who can't get a beau can have plenty of them if you know Sylvia's secret and Sylvia will let you in on it Sunday night.

HUNDREDS OF HANDS HARVEST HEALTHY HOPS

Hundreds—aye thousands—of hands are now harvesting as healthy a looking bunch of hops as were ever raised in the Independence section. While many of the yards would welcome additional pickers, still there is enough of a force on hand to finish the work in due season. So far, there has been no disorder or trouble at any of the yards and none is expected. The hops are all good as to quality and the yield is running up to expectations.

The pickers have started in to be quite liberal spenders. They also appear to be a good natured and law abiding lot. Evidently there is not an Indian left on the Siletz reservation judging by the number here. Most of them are picking at the McLaughlin yard.

In the course of the "ups and downs" of hop raising, this year the grower who didn't contract has it over the ones who did. Downing & Eoff, who will harvest 100,000 pounds this season, were offered seventy cents for their crop. They refused it. Last year at this time, crops not contracted went begging at ten cents, and a number did not pick. It is one big guess as to whether the price has gone to the maximum but the wise ones figure that the top has not yet been reached.

THE CIVIC CLUB BEGINS ITS YEAR'S WORK

The Civic Club season opened officially last Wednesday afternoon with a brief business session at the Library. An important feature of the meeting was the election of delegates to the State Federation which convenes at Corvallis on October 13-17. The Club having a membership of over sixty this year is entitled to three delegates; the president, who is always a delegate, and two others. Those elected were Mrs. J. C. Kreamer and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge. The alternates chosen were Mrs. J. S. Cooper, Mrs. G. W. Conkey and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh. As the meeting place of the Federation is near by, it is hoped that many club members will attend.

Calendar committee promise many items of pronounced interest. It is planned to fill every meeting with affairs of interests to each individual member as well as to the Club as a whole. The season promises to be one of the most prosperous in the history of the Club. Another business session will be held at the Library on Wednesday, Sept. 24.

There will not be a social meeting of the Club until in October, at which time members will exchange ideas and make suggestions for the welfare of the organization. Plans are already underway to make the event a memorable success. By this time the various committees will have their plans well matured. Mrs. J. S. Cooper and Mrs. J. C. Kreamer of the

Mrs. Clyde Ecker as president will be assisted by the following list of competent officers: Mrs. S. Taylor Jones, first vice president; Mrs. C. O. Sloper, second vice president; Mrs. J. C. Kreamer, secretary; Mrs. J. S. Cooper, financial secretary; Mrs. G. W. Conkey, treasurer; Mrs. James Robbie, Mrs. W. M. Huff and Mrs. A. L. Thomas, members of the board.

At the close of the meeting, Dr. H. C. Dunsmore spoke briefly concerning the "Buy a Brick" campaign. It is likely the work will be taken up by the various church organizations. The cause is a worthy one and is being successfully carried on in many places.

MEET THE REAL MR. SWOPE

(Monmouth Herald.) Speaking of Attorney Swope, the business visitor at his office does not get a glimpse of the real man. It is when the attorney becomes the householder, gardener and chicken fancier that the real man is met with. While by no means the most ornate and expensive, Mr. Swope has one of the most attractive homes in Independence. There during his hours of relaxation the visitor is apt to come upon the judge, clad in coveralls, busy with saw or hammer or spade or hoe, communing with nature. On the land surrounding his bungalow there are so many things that it is difficult to catch it all with a few fleeting glimpses. Yet the eye retains the impression of the nodding tassels of tall corn, fruit trees bending beneath the load of pear and apples, white chickens scratching and feeding, and a most pleasant and attractive picture it is.
