

PURE DRUGS

Our entire time is occupied in establishing a reputation for furnishing everything that is best in Drugs and Toilet Articles, at the same time keeping

PRICES DOWN TO WHERE THEY BELONG

We are not substitutors. You can get exactly what you ask for at this store.

Williams' Drug Co.

"Home of the Grafonola"
PERFECT SERVICE PURE DRUGS

CITY AND COUNTRY

Tripp writes fire insurance.

Independence schools open Sept. 22.

Gaylord Godfrey visited Corvallis last week.

The recent rains did considerable damage to prunes.

FOR SALE—Rye and cheat seed. Homer Hill, 24th.

Miss Boughy will occupy the Dickson residence on Fifth street.

A number from here will go to Portland Monday to see President Wilson.

Mrs. Claude Hubbard of Portland spent last week at the J. E. Hubbard home.

Miss Inez Nineman of Kings Valley will teach the Pe-dee school this next year.

Miss Mary Williams returned Wednesday from a visit with friends in Washington.

Miss Laura Baker has enrolled as a student at the Benson Polytechnic in Portland.

Mrs. Hattie Henkle goes to Portland Monday. Her address will be 119 East 32nd St.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge Jr. and K. C. III. returned to Portland last Sunday evening.

Miss Velma Whiteaker was here from Portland this week visiting friends and relatives.

Twelve members of Co. K. will be detailed for duty at the state fair, receiving $1 a day and expenses.

A new member was added to the police force yesterday. A son was born to Chief and Mrs. A. D. Kelliher.

Mary F. Irvine, pianist teacher, begins her classes in rhythm, ear-training and composition on October 1.

Abe Becker, Jr., is behind the counter at Williams drug store. He has received his discharge from the navy.

Marvin Richardson is in town this week. We understand he will attend the Normal this fall and winter.

Miss Arbuthnot returned Monday from The Dalles where she was an instructor in the teachers' institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Baum left Monday for their old home in Pennsylvania. They will be away about two months.

Owing to work on the west side road, traffic to Salem now goes on the east side. The east side road will be good until the rains set in.

Two elderly men, C. G. Sayre and Jasper Sipes, living in this vicinity, were adjudged insane last week and taken to the state hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Kurre have returned to their home at Cottage Grove after a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in this section.

Verd Hill was a visitor in the southern part of the state last week. He started out by automobile but after it commenced to rain he left his machine and completed the journey by rail.

Announcing the 1919-1920 Season
RESIDENCE STUDIO
MRS. LOTTIE HEDGES McINTOSH
PIANO—VOICE—HARMONY
Interstate Faculty Teacher
Western Conservatory of Music
Chicago
High School Pupils enrolling now may receive full High School credits
Phone M4821

A. No. 1 milk cows for sale. Homer Hill. 24

Don't wait to select your winter hat. Mrs. Bascue's styles are the most attractive you can imagine. The prices, too, will be an agreeable surprise.

I. M. Simpson will hold a public sale on Sept. 20 at which time he will sell ten head of horses, 123 registered Lincoln sheep, 100 goats, dairy fixtures, machinery, household goods, etc.

W. R. Maillie arrived from Missoula, Montana, this week and will work in Williams' Windmill Shop. His wife will arrive in a few days. He takes the place of Harry Miller who goes to enter a dental college soon.

The Fred Siegel Stock Co., a road show of merit and ability that has played in many coast cities, will be at the Isis in Independence for one night, Tuesday, Sept. 23 and will present the famous George M. Cohan comedy, "It Pays To Advertise." This will be the first company to appear in Independence for nearly two years and undoubtedly will draw a full house. There will be a reserved seat sale.

BUENA VISTA

Sam Irvine finished picking hops Saturday.

Illa Strawn of Toledo is visiting friends here this week.

Cara Adams and sister of Corvallis are visiting Mrs. A. J. Hall.

The farmers have commenced their fall plowing since the rain.

J. A. Reynolds and family spent Sunday at the Edgar Lichty home.

G. E. Harman, wife and daughter were shopping in Salem Saturday.

N. C. Anderson and G. E. Harman are erecting a silo on their farms south of town.

D. C. Sullivan and wife of Portland spent a few days at Ed Lichty's home last week.

Mrs. Ed Prather and daughter, Ruth, are camped at the Pankella yard picking hops.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chown of Independence spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lichty.

Mr. Pincus is moving his pickers from his hop yard south of here to the one north of Buena Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gobat and daughter of Suver spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Harman.

Misses Plant and Rose lost their store at the Wighich hop yard by fire. There was only a small insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall of Woodburn spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hall.

John Tyler and family from Eastern Oregon and Mrs. Ed Tyler from Woodburn are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler.

NEXT WEEK AT THE ISIS

She was a girl of the tenements. He was a man of the world. She dreamed of love and a home and children. He dreamed of power and the governor's toga. He kissed her. To him it was merely the yielding to an impulse. To her it signified a solemn pledge of marriage. Then his political career was threatened and she found out that he was married to a socially ambitious wife. To cover up possible scandal the wife took the girl into her home, and then complications started that bring about a terrific climax in "Vanity Pool," Mary MacLaren's latest which comes on Monday night. It is packed with big situations and the heart throbs are there.

Grace Cunard, known thruout the world as "The Serial Queen," appears Tuesday night in "After the War." It is an appealing romance of the world war without horrifying scenes of carnage. It is a depiction of a story of unusual merit, and points to one solution of one of the greatest problems growing out of the war. What is to be done for the hundreds of children in Belgium and France today who were born during the war of Belgian or French mothers and German fathers. In those countries today it is not uncommon to find mothers who almost detest their own children—children born in sacrifice—children who ever will remind their mothers of the horrors of invasion. There are fathers who have returned from war to find in their homes the children of their wives and German fathers. The photoplay leaves nothing to be desired in its appealing depiction of a pathetic story of woman's love and sacrifice and its conclusion reveals a solution of the problem that is as logical as it is interesting.

On Wednesday night, dainty Vivian Martin plays the role in "Little Comrade" of a girl who becomes a farmette because she thinks it will be great sport. She spends several hundred dollars for a proper costume, which she designs herself, using the attire worn by the Russian ballet as a model. Then she has several photographs taken of herself in costume leaning on a hoe. But when she gets to the farm she learns that there is real work connected with it. Her gorgeous costume does not stand very well under the strain of cleaning chicken coops and milking cows, and neither does her patriotic spirit. But she surprises every one by pulling herself together and saving a young soldier from desertion. In the end she is a totally different sort of a girl. The added attraction for the evening is Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in "Harold, The Last of the Saxons." While Mr. Drew is no longer with us in person, the smiles he left will bloom forever. The scene is of a small town home talent play in which "Polly" plays the part of the wife of "William the Conqueror." "Henry" didn't like the acting of "W" and "Polly" and he stopped the show.

On Thursday night there is a good Fox special and a Sunshine comedy. A strong and original story of the West has been provided by Thomas H. Ince for Charlie Ray in "The Sheriff's Son," the Friday night bill. The story has color, dramatic power and splendid handling in direction, while it gives Ray one of the best roles of his screen career. As Royal Beaudry, a boy of the West, who inherits pre-natal fear from his mother and who struggles valiantly to down it, he gives a dramatic portrait that is thoroly human. He fights down his fear, and enters the country inhabited by the Rutherford gang, the enemies of his father. He also meets Beulah Rutherford, the niece of the man who heads the gang, and rescues her when she becomes lost. As the forces of law and order close in on the Rutherford gang Royal brings about a reconciliation between the two, and he realizes he has fallen in love with Beulah, the niece of his father's old enemy. The theme is highly dramatic. Its development, showing the growth of character, on the part of Royal and the passing of the barbarous element from the old West, is shown with discrimination and a consistent building of situations. The whole story unfolds smoothly in vigorous screen narrative. On the same evening, Fatty Arbuckle makes his tri-monthly appearance in "Good Night, Nurse." Arbuckle plays the part of a patient sent to a sanitarium to get the alcohol out of his system and experiences a few things calculated to shatter the ribs of movie audiences.

The usual big Saturday night show, the main feature being Bessie Barriscale in "Joselyn's Wife."

Marguerite Clark, the "sweetest girl in motion pictures," appears Sunday, Sept. 21, in "Three Men and a Girl." The theme deals with three men, all of them woman haters, and a vivacious girl who, to escape an odious marriage, finds refuge in the summer camp where the three woman haters are living. They find her asleep curled up on a couch in their cottage. They are extremely annoyed and the girl terms them bears and leaves them to take up her residence in a nearby house. A dead line is established between the two habitations, but strangely the haters of women seek to cross the dead line continually. The photoplay is one of exceptional interest and it affords Miss Clark a delightful role. She has few if any superiors in her presentation of delightful girl characterizations and her admirers have another pleasing hour in prospect.

MISS LAVON LEITCH BECOMES BRIDE OF HAROLD R. KELLEY

(Continued from Page 1.)
her home for some time. She is a musician of exceptional ability and a composer of rare worth. She is a graduate of San Francisco Conservatory. As a designer Mrs. Kelley has a reputation of giving just that individual touch that never fails to please. At the time of her marriage

The Grinnell Laundry Queen

Dress Guard
Solid Wood Dolly
New Belt Tightener
Easily Raised Cover
Special Rubber Rolls
Only Two Sets of Gears
Dolly Swing to Any Tub
Reversible Water Board
Heavy Angle Iron Bench
Specially Designed Motor
Safety Device on Wringer
Attach to Any Light Socket
Wringer Swings to Any Tub
No Part of Machinery Attached to Tub

THE MODERN ELECTRIC MACHINE THAT WASHES CLOTHES SWEET AND CLEAN WITHOUT WEAR OR TEAR. LOOK IT OVER.

CRAVEN & HUFF HDW. CO.

she held a very responsible position at Corvallis. She is possessed of a most gracious manner, always radiating happiness and sunshine, winning the admiration of all who know her.

Prof. and Mrs. Kelley will be at home in Corvallis about Sept. 22.

Perfect Pictures Please Particular People

We make the pictures that please the people

INDEPENDENCE STUDIO

Max Goldman Deals in

HIDES
PELTS
WOOL
FURS
MOHAIR
CASCARA BARK
VEAL
PORK
BEEF
POULTRY
BUTTER
EGGS
FARM PRODUCE
WOOD
WOOD
GROCERIES
SHOES
FURNISHINGS
DRY GOODS

CASH OR TRADE

The Polk County Post was entered as second class matter March 26, 1918, a the postoffice at Independence, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

BROKEN?

Don't be handicapped by a broken lens. Send me the pieces and I will duplicate your lens and return to you in a few hours.

DOCTOR

M. P. MENDELSON

OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN

Specialist in the modern scientific application of glasses for the aid of vision and the relief of eyestrain and headache.

PORTLAND

Suite 414-415 Failing Bldg.
S. E. Cor. Third and Washington.
Phone M. 3630

VALLEY & SILETZ TIME TABLE

Effective April 1, trains will run as follows:
No. 2 arrives from Hoskins 9:15 A. M. daily
No. 4 arrives from Camps 4:00 P. M. daily except Sunday
No. 1 departs for Camps 10:50 A. M. daily except Sunday
No. 3 departs for Hoskins 4:15 P. M. daily
Freight service 2:30 P. M. on Tuesdays and Saturdays

SWOPE & SWOPE LAWYERS

I. O. O. F. Building
Independence, Oregon

The Independence National Bank

Established 1889

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

Officers and Directors

H. Hirschberg, Pres. D. W. Sears, V. P.
Ira D. Mix, Cashier
W. H. Walker I. A. Allen O. D. Butler

A Successful Business Career of Twenty-Five Years