"Here's a Friendly Tip" says the Good Judge

Men who know tobacco, chew the best without its costing them any more. They take a little chew and it's amazing how the good taste stays in a rich, high grade chewing tobacco. For lasting tobacco satisfaction, there's nothing like a small chew of that rich-tasting tobacco.

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK

SUNDAY MATINEE at 2:30—GARALDINE FARRAR in "Shadows" and "SMILING BILL" PARSONS in You Know What I Mean.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21—MARGUERITE CLARK in "Three Men and a Girl." Sylvia knows a thing or two about men. Sylvia knows a thing or two that you ought to know. Sylvia can take a confirmed "woman hater" and lead him around like a puppy. Sylvia is Margaret Clark. With some girls, men are daring Romeos; with others they are grousches. All you girls who can't get a beau can have plenty of them if you know Sylvia's secret and Sylvia will let you in on it Sunday night.

MONDAY, SEPT. 22—PRISCILLA DEAN in "The Two-Soul Woman." Exemplifying the power of Hypnotism. The story of a girl who led a double life.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 23—(In addition to the regular show advertised above)—MAE MURRAY in "Modern Love." The murder of a woman's name in the blackmail of wagging tongues. The heart interest of a pretty girl beset by a pack of libertines. A glimpse behind the scenes of a professional men's club where men-about-town play the game of love as they do poker.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24—SHIRLEY MASON in "The Rescuing Angel." She never told a soul she was married. So she had to expect complications. She did, but her husband, who didn't know that she was making a secret of their marriage, couldn't understand why she allowed other men to make love to her after she had promised to "love, honor and obey." It's funny, ludicrous, dramatic, near tragic. Mack Sennett Comedy, "The Foolish Age." Fifteen minutes of laughs. House not responsible for busted collars.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25—SHOW. Title and name of star not known at this time.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 25—DOROTHY GISH in "Peppy Polly." She wanted to go to jail—just itching to wear stripes "and everything." So she heaved a brick thru a jewelry store window and the cops obliged her by giving her three years. That's where the fun starts. There's a story that will warm the cockles of your heart. Pathos that will tickle your throat. You'll chuckle for a week.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 26—SESSUE KAYAKAWA in "His Debt." Moriama (Hayakawa), the gambling king, ruthless dictator in his gorgeous palace of chance, fair with his patrons but utterly merciless, had a single redeeming human characteristic—he paid his debts—in full, as he collected in full. It was a tradition of his race that he pay what he owed, and when it came to a matter of life, he gave a life for a life. A forceful, twentieth century drama.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 28—WILLIAM S. HART in "The Poppy Girl's Husband." You've seen Bill Hart as a bad man, you've seen him as a sheriff, you've seen him on a bucking broncho and you've seen him in evening clothes. Now you are going to see Bill as a convict in for a stretch of fourteen years. After ten years behind the bars he is paroled and walks once more into the world of living men. He thinks he will find his wife and his pal ready to welcome him. His pal is waiting with outstretched hand. But his wife—she has married the man who sent him up. Then—the big motive in living—revenge!

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: THE GREAT SERIAL, "THE LOST EXPRESS" WILL START ON MONDAY NIGHT, SEPT. 29. READ ABOUT THIS GREAT PICTURE AND DON'T MISS IT.

Sheep and Goat Tails
(From the Congressional Record.)
Mr. JOHNSON of Kentucky. No one ever heard of a goat coming out of one of these packing houses. They all come out as "lambs" or remain there. Has anybody any information as to how many goats are in there, and how many came out as "lambs"? [Laughter.]

Mr. TINCER. No. I would not know a goat from a guinea.
Mr. McARTHUR. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will permit, I want to say to the gentleman from Kentucky that he can settle this question by examining the carcass. The tail of the sheep sticks down, while the tail of the goat sticks up. [Laughter.]

1919 CROP OF HOPS IS NEARLY HARVESTED

Blessed by a fortnight of good weather, bright sunny days perhaps a little too warm for the workers, the excellent 1919 crop of hops in the Independence district will be harvested by Tuesday or Wednesday next. The entire picking season has been marked by pleasantness, there being no strikes, disorders or trouble of any kind.

Other than the Burton, Walker and Eoff and a part of the McLaughlin crop, the remainder has been already sold under contract at prices ranging from twenty to fifty cents. The present price is nearing the 75c. mark. While a grower loathes to sell his crop at 20c. when it is worth three or four times that much, it is part of the game. Some years growers rejoice that they are contracted and other years they have no cause to rejoice—and that's the way it goes.

ELMER ADDISON—HAZEL PORTERFIELD WED

Mr. Elmer Addison and Miss Hazel Porterfield, very well known and popular young people of Independence, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Porterfield in this city on Wednesday, September 24. In the presence of a few relatives, Dr. H. C. Dunsmore pronounced the words that made them man and wife. Immediately after the ceremony they went to the farm, rented by the groom, and will spend their honeymoon at home.

Elmer Addison, a world war veteran, is a hustling young fellow, and having been raised on a farm, is sure to make good there. Mrs. Addison, a former farmer's daughter, will be right at home in the country, so there is no reason to doubt their future success.

Friends wish them all the happiness and blessings of life.

ALTA FLOYD IS DEAD

Alta Floyd is dead. The young man passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Floyd, near Vancouver, Wash., on Wednesday of this week. The funeral was held at the home and interment took place at Vancouver.

A few months ago Alta was seriously burned from which he never recovered. He went with his parents to a farm near Vancouver last Spring after having spent several years of his life in Independence. Here he was a great favorite. Everybody liked him and he liked everybody. He was recognized as the town's official choir boy and could always be depended upon to do every task assigned him faithfully and well.

Alta won for himself a place in the Kingdom where pain and suffering are unknown.

CITY AND COUNTRY

The Main street fill, paved thirty days ago, was opened to traffic today.

Rochette Bonnie, a record-breaking Jersey cow, owned by Stump & Son, died Wednesday as the result of an accident.

Beginning Sept. 22 mail for Airlie will be carried by the S. P. from Monmouth instead of by the V. & S. as at present. Airlie thinks better service can be secured over the S. P.

2200 acres of land near Suver and Buena Vista have been placed in the state game reserve by its owners, Fred Stump, A. J. Richardson, J. H. Thurston, M. A. Prather and M. V. Prather. Many other farmers are in the same notion and will follow suit at the first opportunity.
