Eye of the Starfish.

At the end of each arm in the star-fish there is a little red eye. It does not form an image, but has considerable sensitiveness in distinguishing different degrees of light, enabling the fish to become aware of distant illumination that differs from the surrounding area.

form the miracles.—Kansas City Star.

Cuticura Soap is Easy Shaving for Sensitive Skins

The New Up-to-date Cuticura Method

Speaker's Sore Throat.

"Clergyman's sore throat" is, according to Dr. John J. Levgard of New York, due to an incorrect method of breathing, which causes the speaker or singer to use his muscles incorrectly and thus overtax the throat. The proper way to breathe is to use the diaphragm and the lower ribs, keeping the upper chest full of air.

No Place for Him to Die.

Daniel Webster, taken ill one day in a town, of decided Democratic leanings, begged his friends to take him home at once. "I was born a Federalist," he pleaded. "I have lived a Federalist, and I can't die in a Democratic town."

Daily Thought.

Man is but a reed, the weakest in nature, but he is a thinking reed.— Blaise Pascal.

Resist the Impulse.

The impulse to write poetry is one that at one time or another convulses every one of us, but our notion is that quite a number ought to control and smother it and very few ought to attempt it without first consulting friends and the family physician.— Houston Post.

Borrowed Dignity.

She—"Doesn't Charles look distinguished in that full-dress suit?" He —"How could he help it? That outfit in its day has been on the backs of three football captains, two editors and the leading man in our last college production."—Stanford Chaparral.

Daily Thought.

The one thing in the world which is of value, is the active soul.—Emerson.

Hint on Gas Globes.

To clean gas globes, wash with soap and warm water in which a little salts of lemon has been mixed. The great difficulty in the way of getting the ground glass used for some globes to look white is the grease which sets closely in the roughness.

Nest in Communities.

The weaver birds of South Africa join forces. Scores of pairs nest together under a huge umbrella-shaped structure which they build by their combined labor. Some of these amazing co-operative nests contain a good cartload of grass.
