WE WELCOME ACCOUNTS THAT ARE LITTLE OR BIG

AN account doesn't have to be fully grown up to be welcome here at the Farmers State Bank. Why, we permit the opening of Savings Accounts for as little as $1.00. But, on the other hand, we are fully prepared to handle the biggest in the county.

"Take it from Me"

says the Good Judge

Wise tobacco chewers long since got over the big-chew idea. A little chew of this real quality tobacco gives them better satisfaction and they find their chewing costs even less. With this class of tobacco, you don't need a fresh chew so often and you find you're saving part of your tobacco money.

MILLINERY MESSAGE

Hats For Everyone!

Announcing

My Fall and Winter Display

I am pleased to state that I have hats that will please every one. Close fitting turbans medium size shapes with irregular angles or softly rolled brims, also the new "Turn Up" hats. Larger models of Beaver and hatter's plush with artful adornments. Some with natural ostrich. Color is introduced in the form of embroidery of silk, yarn and chenille.

My gay velour tams will be just what the school girl wants.

ALWAYS A PLEASURE TO SHOW THE HATS.

THE BEAR OF THE WEEK WEDNESDAY NIGHT WALLACE REID IN "The Roaring Road"

A Picture Play for Everyone Who Owns, Rides, Drives, Likes or Wants an Automobile: Men who love the touch of the wheel—women who love the roar of a mighty engine—children who coo and snout at the chug-chug of a car—they should see Wallace Reid in this great story of the road that is torn by an inferno of tearing wheels.

—ALSO—

Cock-eyed BEN TURPIN and pals in the Sennett comedy, "WHEN LOVE IS BLIND." Contrary to the usual procedure of "Marry me, my hero!" she gave Ben the gate. "Nuts" for the funny bone.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9—MARY MacLAREN in "CREAKING STAIRS." Talk about gripping drama! Talk about thrills—and suspense—and everything exciting that makes a photo-drama a corker, you'll get them as you never had them before in "Creaking Stairs," made by the same man who directed "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin."

FRIDAY, OCT. 10—DOROTHY DALTON in "THE LADY OF RED BUTTE." Her life was in momentary danger—she was threatened by an evangelist who believed that her gambling house made Red Butte an "accursed town." But she made this man who was bred in the strict theology of New England, turn to her when he needed real love. The gambling queen became the queen of the evangelist's home!

SATURDAY, OCT. 11—WILLIAM DESMOND in "THE MINTS OF HELL." A drama of the frozen Yukon country in the days of the gold rush picturing the wild scramble gold-mad men made for wealth—vivid portrayal of the risks they ran, built around the romance of a tenderfoot prospector and a daughter of the north. Men froze to death in the snow, perished in blizzards and starved in the bleak wastes, but William Desmond as Dan Burke fought hard and won on the square.

SUNDAY, OCT. 12—ELSIE FERGUSON in "THE MARRIAGE PRICE." When Helen was down to her last dime Fredrick Lawton folded her to his loving heart, decked her with diamonds, and married her. But, two weeks later she packed her clothes and prepared to leave him. He had done nothing wrong, neither had she. Yet, she "was thru." She said she "had enough," but in three hours she came back. Great drama! It surely is!

ISIS THEATRE INDEPENDENCE

George L. Cooper, district deputy head consul of the Modern Woodman of America, is in Independence this week, to reinstate the local camp. Mr. Cooper returned in August from Lima, Peru, where he was American vice consul for four and a half years, making a special study of foreign trade and commerce.
