WAR DEPARTMENT HALTS DELIVERY OF HAND BOMBS

Grenades Were to Be Given Away as Souvenirs to Stamp Buyers

Delivery of 15,000,000 hand grenades to the Treasury Department to be converted into savings banks for the stimulation of thrift and sales of War Savings Stamps has been held up by the War Department and contracts which the Treasury Department had with the Treasury Department for supplying the grenades were cancelled, according to a telegram received from Washington by C. A. Farnsworth, associate director of the War Loan Organization in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District. No reason was given for cancellation of contract beyond the fact that the War Department has "determined that the distribution of hand grenades as souvenirs should be discontinued."

The grenades in question, known as Mills bombs No. 11, were ready for shipment to the American forces in France when the armistice was signed. At the request of the Treasury Department the War Department agreed to turn these banks over to the Treasury Department for conversion into savings banks, and immediately upon announcement that they would be distributed to the purchasers of War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates, millions of orders flooded in. In the Twelfth Federal Reserve District alone banks and trust companies through which the grenades were to be awarded had ordered nearly 100,000 of the souvenirs. These and all other orders throughout the nation will have to be cancelled.

In its telegram to Farnsworth the Treasury Department stated that Certificates of Achievement signed by Secretary Glass will be awarded instead of the grenades to all school children who worked during the vacation to obtain a bank and who bought enough War Savings Stamps to entitle them to grenades.

These interests hold exactly the same relation to the government that the holder of a first mortgage does to the owner of the property and the payer of the interest. If, on the other hand, the debt is divided between millions of citizens who are the government, the relationship is as different as is a co-operative society from a Uriah Heep. —William Gibbs McAdoo, in Pictorial Review.

The United States needs the money you invest in War Savings Stamps. Buy them every week. They bring 4 per cent interest compounded every three months. They give you a share in the government of the United States. Un-Ltd.—meaning unlimited.
