says the Good Judge

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobacco goes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through.

Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.

Charles Sawyers, a youth of 19, who claims Independence as his home, is now in the Marion county jail for a term of thirty days. It is alleged that Young Sawyers robbed a shack belonging to some Greeks near Mill City of $80 worth of war saving stamps and $95 worth of certificates of deposit.

A Corking Good Weeks Run
Anita Stewart—"A Midnight Romance"
Comedy, "Ole Olson"—A Real Show

TUESDAY, OCT. 14—ANITA STEWART in "A Midnight Romance." A beautiful girl takes a position as housemaid in a fashionable summer hotel. During the day she makes beds. At night she blossoms out in shimmering silks and picks off the best "catch" of the season. A wonderful story of a strange and beautiful romance of midnight. Mystery, adventure, lavishly staged, magnificent gowns.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15—The famous old comedy, "OLE OLSON" by a company of real stage people—not a moving picture. The "movie" for the same evening is ENID BENNETT in "The Law of Men." She was only a struggling little artist, so when a frivolous man-about-town, made her a glittering offer she fell into his trap. MR. AND MRS. SIDNEY DREW in "Squared." "Henry" and "Polly", for the first time, play the part of sweethearts instead of the usual "hubby" and "wifey."

THURSDAY, OCT. 16—MAE MURRAY in "Her Body in Bond." If you are thinking of a stage career, don't make the leap until you have seen this picture—the pitfalls of the footlights. The high light contrast between the wife in the city and the husband in Arizona.

FRIDAY, OCT. 17—JOHN BARRYMORE in "The Test of Honor." He had only two choices: Go to jail himself for seven years for a crime of which he was guiltless or send to jail for seven years, the woman he loved, who was guilty of the basest crime within the ken of man. Which did he take? Which would you take? You won't know just what is going to happen until the last foot of picture has passed.

SATURDAY, OCT. 18—BESSIE BARRISCALE in "The Woman Michael Married." She demanded marriage as a reward for heroism, and he paid—the strangest marriage on record. Miss Barriscale wears the most gorgeous wardrobe in which she has ever appeared, and the elaborate sets which were used in the production make it one of the most "showy" pictures ever produced in California.

SUNDAY, OCT. 19—WILLIAM S. HART in "The Money Corral." They overpowered the watchman, battered in the huge door and thought the coast was clear. But when they tried to touch the money they found someone waiting for them—someone who could shoot the date out of a dime in mid-air. The police came but "Big Bill" didn't need them—finished the job before they got there. Come and see the fight!

1919 HOPS HAVE ALL BEEN DISPOSED OF

The last of the 1919 hops raised in the Independence district have been sold. The Burton and Walker Bros. crops have been disposed of at 75c, and it is being said that McLaughlin had made up his mind to let his "extras" go at a substantial figure.

There seems to be no doubt of the financial success of hop raising in the year 1920 and as a result of such favorable prospects, an increase in acreage in this section is a certainty.

CHAUTAUQUA FESTIVAL NEXT MONTH.

Nov. 13—Tom Corwine, polyphonist. One of the funniest entertainments on the platforms.

Nov. 14—Marshall Louis Mertins, writer and poet of the South. He weaves much of his delightful verse and many of his inimitable southern stories into his lecture-entertainment.

Nov. 15—Chicago Artists Company including Margery Helen Graham, dramatic reader, Lowell Patton, pianist and singer, and Frances Soule, harpist.

Nov. 17—Major Thornton A. Miller. His great inspiration lecture is "Fiddles and Fortunes."

Nov. 18—Sierra Serenaders, five talented girls in an evening of life, snap and real music.

SEEKERS OF CONNUBIAL BLISS.

Eakin-Childs—John B. Eakin of Dallas and Miss Dorothy E. Childs of Independence were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. A. Childs, on Saturday, October 4, Rev. C. T. Cook officiating. Only relatives were present. The living room was profusely decorated with beautiful flowers for the occasion. The bride wore a navy blue tallieur of broadcloth and a large picture hat of black velvet with streamers. Her corsage bouquet was of bride's roses and orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Eakin are among the most popular of Polk county's young people and their many friends wish them much joy and happiness.

Obeson-Kingsbury—James Oberson and Mrs. Kingsbury went to Vancouver last week and were mated for life. As they are to reside in Washington, they have not yet returned to Independence to receive the congratulations and well wishes of their numerous friends.

BUENA VISTA CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. F. L. Chown was a very delightful hostess to the Buena Vista Rural Club last Thursday afternoon. One of the most pleasant features of the meeting was a paper on "Our Club as a Community Center," which proved very interesting to the gathering. The Buena Vista Club is very active and has some splendid accomplishments to its credit. Mrs. Chown has been one of the Club's most ambitious members. The hostess served her guests with delicious refreshments. Several no-club members enjoyed the afternoon.

MRS. REBECCA JANE McELMURRAY PASSES.

ALBANY, Oct. 1—Her health shattered by a fall about six months ago which broke her hip, Mrs. Rebecca Jane McElmurray, aged 89, died Tuesday at the home of her son, Henry W. McElmurray, a former councilman of Albany.

Mrs. McElmurray was born in Tennessee in November, 1830. She crossed the plains in 1869, settling in the Willamette valley.

Besides the son here she is survived by five children: S. H. McElmurray of Independence; Mrs. P. E. Compton and Mrs. Safronia Alexander of Independence; Mrs. Allie Curry of Albany, and Mrs. Nancy Cauthorn of Wellsdale.

JOHN DONALDSON KNOCKED OUT.

John Donaldson was seriously injured today at the farm of John Robbins in a peculiar manner. While engaged in connecting an ensilage cutter with a gasoline engine, a belt flew off the pulleys and struck him on the back of the head. It was a terrible blow and he was knocked unconscious for fifteen minutes. Mr. Donaldson is now at home suffering severely with a "big head" and it will be several days before he will be able to resume his business duties.

NEW EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY PROPOSED.

Plans are under way to organize a High School Parent-Teachers association or some organization whereby the teachers, pupils and parents may be brought into closer touch with each other. The movement is meeting with considerable enthusiasm and it is likely the organization will be perfected soon.

POLK PRUNE CROP SHORT.

Last season more than 4,000,000 pounds of prunes were raised in this vicinity, while this year according to the best estimates that can be placed on the crop so far, is something like 3,000,000 pounds.—Dallas Observer.
