The dollar kept at home is the most valuable dollar of all. It buys something for everybody.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Portland Telegram: Shaler Eldridge was the guest of Iles Sandifur, son of the Rev. F. N. Sandifur, on Leavett street, Sunday. Eldridge is the son of K. C. Eldridge of Independence Or.

Mrs. J. B. V. Butler returned from Portland where she went to visit her sister, Mrs. Hattie Henkle, who is quite ill. She reports Mrs. Henkle's condition but very little improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper were most delightful hosts to the Owls last Monday evening. The guests indulged enthusiastically in whist until a late hour. The evening's pleasures were concluded with an enjoyable luncheon.

Miss Florence Burton left last Monday for Toronto and other points in Canada. She will visit an aged maternal grandmother and other relatives. Miss Burton expects to visit many places of interest in the East before returning home.

A "boys' choir" is to be organized by Mr. Underhill, with Mrs. J. G. McIntosh as accompanist. Mr. Underhill is a capable leader and as a boy sang in the Episcopal or "Mother Church" of England. It will be fine training for the boys and their "coming out" will be looked forward to with eagerness.

Friends here have received word that Mrs. A. L. (Marie) Spratley was married Nov. 5 to Mr. Y. W. Reynolds of St. Joseph, Mo. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's relatives in Santa Ana, Cal., and was the culmination of only a short romance. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will make their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smiley and Mrs. Leonta Small visited the L. L. Hewitts in Portland last week. The Hewitts had taken their guests out for the evening and when the party returned home they discovered the house had been burglarized. Everything had been turned topsy-turvy, but only about a dollar in money had been taken. This is the second burglary the Hewitts have experienced during their residence in Portland.

Friends of S. Taylor Jones, who submitted to a major operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital a few weeks ago, will be happy to know that his recovery is most satisfactory. He is able to be up a portion of the time and enjoy the company of his friends. Mrs. Jones, who is always on the alert to scatter cheer, surprised her husband with a most delightful dinner party last Sunday. The guests were old friends of the Jones and included Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayter, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Black and son of Dallas.

BUENA VISTA

N. C. Anderson lost a valuable cow Saturday with milk fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Addison were Portland visitors last week.

George and Perry Wells took two loads of hogs to Independence Tuesday.

Dr. Butler of Independence was called to see Mrs. Margaret McClain Friday night as she is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lichty have arrived in the East and say that they are having some snow and real winter weather, but enjoying it fine.

There was a good roads meeting held at the Odd Fellows' Hall Friday evening to discuss means to better our roads. A committee was appointed to go to Dallas to see the Court. J. R. Loy, G. A. Wells and M. N. Prather were appointed.

Those that were shopping in Albany were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Harman, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Prather, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Mrs. Tann, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Prather and children, Wayne and Thelma Moe.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Grounds received word this week that their son, Ray, who is attending the Stanford university in California, has been elected as a delegate from that institution to attend the convention of all the universities of the United States at DeMoines, Iowa.

Mrs. M. V. Prather gave a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of her daughter, Pearl's 19th birthday. Those that were present were: G. E. Harman and wife and daughter, Blanche; Ed Prather, wife and daughter, Ruth; Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Tessa and Bill McCann, Mrs. N. C. Anderson and Mart Prather and wife. The day was spent in social conversation. In the evening, the guests departed wishing Pearl many happy returns of the day.
