CITY AND COUNTRY

Tripp writes fire insurance.

Mrs. S. B. Walker was a Portland visitor this week.

Mrs. Newton, Sr., has been indisposed this week.

Chester Henkle made a trip to Portland the first of the week.

It is late to do your Christmas shopping early, but do it as early as you can.

I. H. Robinson who now lives at Centralia Wash., was an Independence caller this week.

George Jewell of Brownsville was an over Sunday visitor at the home of his cousin E. E. Tripp.

Mrs. K. C. Eldridge returned Sunday night from Medford, where she spent a fortnight with her son, Lawrence.

L. Damon didn't dig trenches during the recent world war, but he certainly knew how to dig them in the snow and did some welcome work. Pedestrians who followed in his footsteps were sure of getting "some where."

The Independence school board is to be commended for providing funds to maintain the soup kitchen at the training school. Especially during the recent spell of Canada weather did the youngsters enjoy the treat.

At a meeting of the Eastern Star Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins were initiated into the mysteries of the order. The annual election of officers was held. Those chosen were: Mrs. L. Damon, worthy matron; Dr. H. C. Dunsmore, worthy patron; Mrs. F. G. Hewitt, associate matron; Mrs. Chas. Calbreath, conductress; Mrs. W. H. Walker, associate conductress; Mrs. Mix, treasurer; Mrs. Clark, secretary. Other officers are to be appointed by the worthy matron. The installation of the newly-elected officers will be held some time soon. An excellent luncheon was served by the refreshment committee which included Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Jeter Virgin, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Becker.

For Sale—Loganberry tips and 1 year old plants and all kinds of fruit trees. Place your order early to get the best.
FRANCIS BROWN.
