Crusoe's Umbrella.
 Defoe, it will be remembered, makes Robinson Crusoe describe that he had seen umbrellas employed in the Brazil and that he had constructed his own umbrella in imitation of them. "I covered it with skins," he said, "the hair outward, so that it cast off the rain like a pent house and kept off the sun so effectually that I could walk out in the hottest weather with greater advantage than I could before in the coolest."

Education.
 An educated man stands, as it were, in the midst of a boundless arsenal and magazine, filled with all the weapons and engines which the skill of men has been able to devise from the earliest time; and he works accordingly, with a strength borrowed from all past ages.—Carlyle.

To Have a Clear Sweet Skin.
 Touch pimples, redness, roughness or itching, if any, with Cuticura Ointment, then bathe with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Rinse, dry gently and dust on a little Cuticura Talcum to leave a fascinating fragrance on skin. Everywhere 25c each.—Adv.

The Unpopular Atchoo!
 Plentywood Press.—"I sneezed a sneeze into the air, it fell to earth I knew not where; but hard and cold were the looks of those in whose vicinity I sneeze."—Boston Transcript.

Ancient Bell.

What's Art to This Senator?
 Art received a terrible wallop at the national capitol when a senator decided he wanted a private door into his office so that folks could not break in on him unannounced. Summoning workmen, he caused to be torn out some of the finest art work on the walls of the senate side and then had a door installed.

Valuable Japanese Plant.
 A plant grows in Japan which furnishes a sort of vegetable leather. It is a pretty shrub called the mitsumata, and its inner bark, after going through certain processes, is converted into a substance as tough as French kid, so transparent that one can almost see through it, and as pliable and soft as calfskin.

Lizard's Eyelid Transparent.
 There is a lizard living in the Transcaspian desert that has the lower eyelid fused with the upper; it is transparent, and like a window, lets in light, but excludes sand.

For Somnolent Smokers.
 A cigar held between the second and third fingers, above the second joints, will not drop from the smoker's hand if he falls asleep.—New York Sun.

Object of Public School.
 The public school is wrongly organized when its main object is to fit for college. It should benefit the many rather than the few.—Phillips.

Lift off Corns!
 Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet. A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!
