

Another Royal Suggestion
PIES and PASTRIES
 From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

CCHEER up! There is no further reason for worrying about table variety. The new Royal Cook Book gives new suggestions for every meal every day. The book is so full of surprises there will never be another dull meal in the home. Here are a few suggestions from the new Royal Cook Book.

Plain Pastry

This recipe is for one large pie with top and bottom crust
 2 cups flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 cup shortening
 cold water
 Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add shortening and rub in very lightly with tips of fingers (the less it is handled the better the paste will be). Add cold water very slowly, enough to hold dough together (do not work or knead dough). Divide in halves; roll out one part thin on floured board and use for bottom crust. After pie is filled roll out other part for top.

Rich Pastry

2 cups pastry flour
 1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup shortening
 cold water
 Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add one-half shortening and rub in lightly with fingers; add water slowly until of right consistency to roll out. Divide in halves; roll out one half thin; put on in small pieces half remaining shortening; fold upper and lower edges to center; fold sides in to center; roll out thin and put on pie plate. Repeat with other half for top crust.

Apple Pie

1/2 cups flour
 1/2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons shortening
 4 apples, or 1 quart sliced apples
 2 tablespoons sugar
 1 teaspoon milk
 Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add shortening and rub in very lightly; add just enough cold water to hold dough together. Roll half out on floured board; line bottom of pie plate; fill in apples, which have been washed, pared and cut into thin slices; sprinkle with sugar; flavor with cinnamon or nutmeg; wet edges of crust with cold water; roll out remainder of pastry; cover pie, pressing edges tightly together and bake in moderate oven 30 minutes.

GOVERNOR ASKED TO COMPEL OBEYANCE OF ROAD LAW

 Court has refused to do, on the ground that under the law, independence should be on the Highway, and that the road should therefore run south from Independence; in reprisal for which the Commission asserts that it has cancelled the contract for the construction of so much of the Salem-Dallas post road as would lie between Dallas and Rickreall, and that it will use the funds available for that part of the post road for the preparation of a roadbed for the Pacific Highway running south from Monmouth.

carry out this threat, the result will be, of course, (1) that Dallas will not be on any State Highway, "stub" or otherwise, and (2) that Independence will be left on a spur.
 The officers and people of Polk county have endeavored to cooperate with the Commission, and in numerous conferences have courtously insisted that the law be followed out, but have reluctantly been forced to the conclusion that the Commission is indifferent to the wishes or welfare of the County and that further appeals to that body are useless.
 The undersigned, resident citizens and voters of Polk County, therefore respectfully present this petition to Your Excellency and pray that you, as the Chief Executive of the State, whose duty it is to see that the laws are faithfully executed, take such action as may be necessary to compel the State Highway Commission to keep faith with the people of this county with respect to the construction of the Pacific Highway through Dallas, Monmouth and Independence.

Contestants Extend Thanks.

I want to thank my many friends for helping me get the largest popular vote in The Polk County Post contest just closed.

MRS. GAIL ALEXANDER.

Louise Bauman feels very grateful to her many friends for their assistance and wishes to thank them most sincerely.

NOT UNKNOWN TO HER

Mrs. Brown—When I was a girl we used to have proposing parties. I don't suppose you ever hear of such a thing now.
 Miss Bright—Why—er—yes. I had a proposing party call on me only the other evening. How do you like my ring?—Boston Transcript.

E. E. Paddock will serve as sergeant at arms at the Republican national convention, at Chicago. Besides the thrill of a big convention, Mr. Paddock will also have the pleasure of visiting relatives in the "Windy City."

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Drexler dispensed very charming hospitality to the Crab Club last evening. The appointments for the Club's accustomed dinner were most beautiful and the table was laden with deliciously prepared food for which Mrs. Drexler has an enviable reputation. The party hastened the feast to enjoy the Chautauqua number.

When returning from the Golden Wedding jubilee of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, Rev. Cook ran out of "gas" and was unable to get any farther for several hours, and almost missed the first Chautauqua number by the delay. One would never suspect that Rev. Cook and his Ford would have a similar experience but Mrs. Cook says it's true and we believe it.

Falls City defeated Independence here Sunday, the score being 9 to 4. This was rather a surprise to the Independence boys as they beat Falls City two weeks ago. The third game promises to be a thriller.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kurre and Mrs. E. M. Bennett were in Corvallis this week, being summoned there by the death of Wm. Mack, which occurred Wednesday. Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Kurre are sisters.

COATS AND FUSSES

By LILLIAN M. RICHARDS.

(Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"Now, you listen to me, Mr. Ted Harlow," demanded his wife, one morning as they were seated at the breakfast table. "If you wanted a new fur coat, you wouldn't sit down with pencil and pad to see whether you could afford it or not, you'd simply buy it, and then figure afterwards. So, why can't I do the same?"

"But, darling," responded her husband pleadingly, "you know they're terribly high just now, and they'll surely take a drop in price a little later. If you'd only wait—"

"Wait!" exclaimed his wife on the verge of tears. "That's all I hear, 'wait.' I'll not wait!" Then she flopped her napkin down on the table. "For once in my life I'm going to have what I want, when I want it." And she hurried out of the room.

Hazel Harlow was in a rage. Her ungovernable temper had been the cause of much repentance on her part many times. In a few minutes she heard Ted go out of the door whistling, and that settled it. Before another hour had passed, she was dressed for the street, and headed for Hayden's department store.

After trying on several coats without finding one to suit, she became discouraged and was about to leave, when the clerk brought out a Hudson seal, with skunk trimming.

"How much is it?" she inquired breathlessly.

"Just five hundred," replied the girl, as if she were saying five cents.

"Five hundred!" repeated Hazel thoughtfully. That was a great deal more than she had intended paying.

That evening the Harlow's were hardly on speaking terms, you know, one of those chilly sort of affairs. The next morning Ted informed his wife that he would be leaving at noon on a business trip, which would necessitate his absence for several days. Although he'd try and return for her birthday. With a relieved look, Hazel bid him good-by. She would have a few days in which to wear her new coat before he saw it. As Ted Harlow closed the door of their apartment, a delivery boy opened the lower hall door with a box for his wife.

WM. H. MACK DIES SUDDENLY OF APOPREXY

 shocked to learn of the death of Wm. H. Mack which occurred in Corvallis last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Mack had been to Eugene to attend the commencement exercises of the Divinity School. On their return Tuesday they stopped for lunch when Mr. Mack was seized with apoplexy. Mrs. Mack drove the car to Corvallis where they had friends and medical aid was obtained. Life was sustained until the following day. The direct cause of the death was arterio-sclerosis.

Mr. Mack was born in Minnesota and had a large circle of friends. He was a devout member of the Christian church of Monmouth where he has lived for about thirty years. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. E. M. Bennett.

Funeral services will be held from the Christian church in Monmouth Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Morris of Eugene will have charge of the service.

CHAUTAUQUA GUARANTEE GOES "OVER THE TOP"

The Independence Summer Chautauqua has gone over the top, sufficient funds having been received from the sale of season tickets to pay the guarantee. When the contract was signed many thought it couldn't be done, but the strenuous work of twenty or more boosters turned the trick.

Chester Henkle, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Skinner, Mrs. Perl Hedges and Mrs. Irvin Baun motored to Portland this week.
