

MURDER!

Now is the time to begin killing flies. A fly dead in time makes a thousand less later on. We have several fly destroyers which we recommend for immediate use in eradicating man's greatest pest. Begin the battle at once.

Baptist Church To Hold Sunday School Picnic

Fun, frolic and eats and a general good time will mark the day of picnicing given by the Baptist Sunday school. The picnic is to be held July 8, which will be next week Thursday. The Sunday school will meet in a body at the church on Thursday morning and then go to the picnic grounds at Boat Landing on the river south of Independence. Definite announcements will be made Sunday morning at the church. There will be races and games and plenty of fun. All are invited.

The Sunday school meets regularly at 10 a. m. every Sunday at the Baptist church. At 11 a. m. Rev. Proppe will preach on "The Greatest Working Force in the World." The Young People's Society meets at 7 p. m. sharp; an able leader and a good meeting is promised. At the hour of 8 p. m. sharp Rev. Proppe will preach on "What Hath Been Done For Us."

You are invited to attend these meetings. A hearty welcome and an enjoyable Sunday awaits you if you come.

AT THE ISIS NEXT WEEK

"Dangerous To Men" the Sunday attraction with Viola Dana as the star, is a romance of an ugly duckling who finds herself at eighteen in a young bachelor's household as his ward. How she becomes "dangerous" with the allurements of youthful audacity and makes men dizzy in the giddy whirl of courtship is told in a story full of thrilling developments.

The double bill for Monday and Tuesday nights is "When a Woman Strikes" and episode ten of "Smashing Barriers" entitled "Overpowered." The first is a story of the West, teeming with action every minute of the sixty that the picture holds the screen. In episode ten of the serial, Dick Darling is thrown into an old mine shaft and left to die.

Lew Cody makes his initial debut in Independence in "The Beloved Cheater" Wednesday and Thursday nights. In this picture you will see all of the fifty seven varieties of lovmaking. Lew sings poetically: "I've known some beautiful women, I've loved them and made them love me. It's not that I love—it's the way which I love that gets them each time don't you see?" Then again: "For the more you know the many, the less you will cater to one." Evidently the girls are all just crazy over Lew.

The ever popular, Constance Talmadge in "Scandal" Friday night. It is a very pleasing comedy sweetened to the taste.

Harry Carey comes back Saturday night in "Marked Men," a drama of the desert and its gifts—the story of a man who was sent to prison on circumstantial evidence, escapes and finds happiness after a series of heart gripping adventures in the West.

A Price Reduction

MANDEL PHONOGRAPHS

We are offering a substantial reduction in the price of Mandel Phonographs. We would be pleased to show them to you and give you a free concert for the asking.

The Mandel Phonograph represents the latest achievement in the development of machines to reproduce the human voice and the sounds of musical instruments. It takes its place in the front rank of phonographs, and is able to maintain that position through its marvelous powers of reproduction—playing any record from the leading makers and rendering them in a true and artistic manner.

DRESSING THE BOY

We are making a specialty of dressing boys these days. If you see a tastily dressed youngster around Independence now it's ten to one that Kreamer fitted him out. Hat or cap, shirt, collar, tie, coat, pants and shoes. From the top to the bottom this store can dress a boy. We not only fix him for Sunday school, party or visit, but for ordinary everyday wear—clothing to knock around in—again this store is a sure bet. Most every boy is rough on clothes and realizing this failing of young America, Kreamer has in stock a line of tough suits, pants and shoes that will wear and wear well. Prices on all grades of clothing are very reasonable. Bring in the boy.

O. A. Kreamer
