Hi Johnson has been a visitor at the Democratic convention. The Democrats could nominate Hi and win this fall in a walk.

The gasoline shortage has demonstrated that the Standard Oil Co. is more powerful than the government that gave it the privilege to exist.

The Shriners say that Portland showed them the time of their lives and the Shriners are the fellows who have had lots of experience in having good times.

Evidently the Democrats intend to say something, but it is taking them quite a while to get it out of their systems. The people don't figure much on platforms and but few ever read them.

A newspaper man as a presidential candidate is handicapped from the beginning. The opposition looks over the files of his publication and air his views on every subject. What Mr. Harding said about Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Johnson in 1912 doesn't look very well in print now.

Because rice has advanced to one and an eighth cents per pound, there has been food riots in China. An eighth of a cent to a Chinaman in China looks like a dollar bill to a white man, hence the riot. A Chinaman with a hundred dollars becomes a plutocrat and lives indefinitely without labor, so there are advantages in being a Chinaman.

THE RHYMING SUMMARIST

When it gets hot, so very hot
That your feet stick on the paving,
You wander down to the river bank
With the intent of bathing;
And sometimes you do and sometimes you don't
Depends on how you stand shocking
When you see Sadie
Or some other lady
Completely dressed in a stocking.

If you admonish the girlie to half cover up,
She'll stick up fingers so haughty
And ask if you was raised in a church
And what do you see that is naughty?
So old-fashioned folks just wander away,
The wheels in their head sort of gumming,
In a kind of a daze
They turn back and gaze
And wonder what next will be coming.

"One half the world doesn't know what the other half does"
Is a philosopher's booking,
But when one half dons their bathing suits
The other knows and keeps looking;
But let's gaze to the South and hear the acclaim,
How hard the Demos are tryin',
Will it be McAdoo,
Palmer pull thru,
We'll bet Ingram's money on Bryan.

In the Real Tobacco Chew. You get satisfaction. A little of this class of tobacco lasts so much longer than the old kind. And you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—so it costs you less. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
