THE RHYMING SUMMARIST

The grand old Fourth has come and gone
And all are back to working,
It will be quite a stretch of time
Till another chance for shirking;
Once on a time the glorious Fourth
Was spent in celebration,
But nowadays
As it lays
There is no great elation.

The gang spins off to the quiet woods
Or where the fish are biting,
The more moucouque is the place
Then it is more inviting;
Everybody used to strenuously celebrate
And shoot fireworks and crackers
But now it's the game
To make it tame
We are a bunch of slackers

Cox and Roosevelt vs. Harding and Coolidge
Are harnessed for the racing;
And the same old bunk will be scattered out
When the voters chasing;
It may get warm, in fact quite hot,
As they draw near the wicket,
But we don't hear
So many cheers,
Let's have another ticket.

JAMES MIDDLETON COX

James Middleton Cox was born on a farm near Jacksonburg, Ohio, March 3, 1870. He attended the district schools of the neighborhood, became a printer's devil, printer, school teacher, newspaper reporter, private secretary to a congressman, owner, manager, editor and proprietor of two newspapers, member of congress for three terms and governor of the state of Oregon for three terms.

He started his active career as a school teacher in Butler county, where he had earlier attended school. His evenings were spent in the printing offices of the local publications and a few years later he was accepted as a reporter on the staff of the Cincinnati Enquirer. The next ten years were devoted to active newspaper work in almost every capacity of that newspaper.

He is next heard of as private secretary to Congressman Paul Sorg and at the close of his service in Washington he purchased the Dayton Daily News, borrowing most of the money with which to carry on the business of the paper which at the time had a very small circulation.

Mr. Cox put all his energies into making the publication a successful business venture and so well did he carry out his plans that he was soon owner of the Springfield daily News which today stands as one of the newspaper successes of the country.

In 1906 he was elected to congress from the Third district and served three terms. Elected governor in 1912; defeated in 1912; re-elected in 1916 and 1918 and is now finishing his third term.

Mr. Cox has four children. Two boys and two girls.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Franklin D. Roosevelt was born in Hyde Park, New York, January 30, 1882, the son of James and Sara Delano Roosevelt. He is a distant relative of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt on his father's side and of the Astor family thru his mother.

Mr. Roosevelt married Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, niece of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and daughter of Eliot Roosevelt, March 17, 1905. They have five children.

He was elected to the New York state senate in 1910 and re-elected in 1912, during which time he actively opposed Tammany. In 1913 he was appointed secretary of the navy, the position he now holds.

The prices for Sunday night will be 25c and 50c cents.

"High Speed" which comes on Monday and Tuesday nights with episode 11 of "Smashing Barriers" is a story of automobile racing and what followed when two cars, going at a death defying clip, came together. The great "Alias Jimmy Valentine" comes on Wednesday and Thursday nights with Bert Lytell in the leading role. This is the drama that made a law breaker one of the most fascinating characters in literature. It is the play of punch and power that appeals to people of all ages.

Mitchell Lewis in "Code of the Yukon" and the famous monkey comedian, Mrs. Joe Martin, in "A Baby Doll Bandit" Friday night. "Lasca," a story of "Old Texas" Saturday night following closely the famous poem of the same name in which the heroine dies to save the man she loves.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Patterson of Salem spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Patterson. The party motored to Hoskins to visit the old farm home of "Grandma" Patterson. She said she never thought she'd make that trip by automobile, but she did enjoy it.
