

Keeping Cool Is a Hard Job

With the thermometer hitting the high places, it is a hard job to keep cool, but it helps a heap to keep clean. Use only good pure soap and for chafeing, sun burns and chapping there are a number of good creams and lotions that cure and prevent subsequent attacks. Call at this store and be supplied.

Mrs. Jim Collins was here from Portland to spend Independence Day.

Miss Vera Brunk of Portland was a week end visitor with her parents here.

Jamts Jones and Miss Jessie Mattison celebrated the Fourth in Albany.

Miss Ivy Stanley left the last of the week to indulge in the sports at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson passed their week end vacation on the McKenzie.

The J. W. Rodgers family and a number of guests enjoyed a home picnic the Fourth.

Do you live in Independence? Then why not patronize her industries. Eat Liberty bread.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Berry were lured to Cascadia to spend their Independence Day vacation.

Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. V. Butler spent the Fourth fishing at Falls Creek.

S. Read has a fine flock of White Leghorn hens which he is advertising for sale elsewhere in this Post.

Mrs. Sara Claggett Young of Albany spent the Fourth here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Claggett.

Mrs. George Williams arrived Thursday from Centralia to visit her parents, Mr and Mrs. J. S. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Taylor and family of Oregon City were guests of his mother, Mrs. Clara Taylor, last Sunday.

For Sale—My residence in Independence. A good buy for someone wishing a nice modern home. W. H. PATTON.

Mrs. Barnett and son, Lemuel, have gone to Salem to spend a while with Mrs. Barnett's mother, Mrs. Lemmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plant and children, Gordon and Marjorie, will leave Monday for Newport to spend their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitcomb were here from Tillamook the Fourth visiting his mother, Mrs. Pere Kurre, and other relatives.

Larry Fitzgerald left his banking duties in the metropolis long enough to join his friends and relatives here over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Taylor Jones and son, Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. James Robbie enjoyed the good old fashioned S. S. picnic in Dallas.

Chester Henkle and Miss Florence Burton in company with a party of friends celebrated the holiday at Colorado Lake, near Corvallis.

Probably the most popular of all sage productions is "Alias Jimmy Valentine." It comes to the Isis on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Mrs. Rosebrook (Miss Mae Kennedy) of Portland, who visited Miss Florence Burton for several days, returned home last Saturday.

Little Miss Elinor Kurre who has been attending school in Salem is spending her vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kurre.

George Girard, who is nearly always on duty at the Independence Mill, left Tuesday morning for Cascadia where he will rusticate for two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Biome and George Clemens of Portland spent the big holiday with the Word Butlers. With a good supply of eats they all enjoyed an outing at Ronco Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sloper and Mr. and Mrs. James Robbie composed a party of pleasure seekers that spent the Fourth and Fifth rustivating at Sulphur Springs on the Little Nestuck.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ruef and daughter, Marion, of Salem were guests at the J. N. Jones home the Fourth, being accompanied home by the Jones who enjoyed Capital City festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Perl Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mattison spent the double holiday at Alsea. Each member of the party has suppressed his jealousy enough to admit that Hedges is the champion fisherman. The latest report is that he depleted the waters of thirty perfectly good-looking trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Craven and son, Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Irvine and two sons, and the Garfield Byers family went to Pacific City to spend their vacation. As they went up Mr. Dickinson, who is "ruralistic" in his habits, passed the others to lead the way. He got lost from the crowd and the party didn't join forces until on the return home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Davidson spent the Fourth in Corvallis at the Susan Jones home. The following day the same party joined by Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Wolfe and Daddy Hedges, equipped with rod and reel, went to Humbog Lake to fish. To hear the story, the body of water is nothing its name implies for it certainly produces the fish in huge quantities. After listening about the vast number of fish caught the writer said, "All out of that little lake?" The answer was, "Most of them; some of them we caught on the banks."

A most delightful Independence Day gathering was that of the Dickinson clan. Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson, together with Mr. and Mrs. Don Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. George Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dickinson and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dickinson and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Jeter Virgin and their guest, Miss Hattie Virgin of Missouri, Mrs. Belle Nye and daughter of Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wood and Sam Goff enjoyed a bounteous picnic dinner on the Luckanute. In the afternoon they were joined by Mrs. Homer Hill, Wendell Denlinger, Verd Hill and sister, Mrs. Garlin Hill Cohrs of Spokane. Before departing for home a big picnic supper closed the perfect day.

A happy Fourth was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Alexander four miles south of Independence. One brother and four sisters, aunts and an uncle of Mrs. Alexander, met after thirty-one years. Those present were Mrs. G. D. Alexander's father and mother—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans—from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Miller and three children, Mrs. Ella Chartier and Walter D. Chartier of Denver, Colorado; L. L. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Halcomb and daughter Leodora, Messrs. Forest, Marion and Willard Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Grufke and Miss Eva Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stapleton and son Deane Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Home Lindsey and little daughter Rose Marie, all of Portland; Mrs. Ida Fricker of Dondon, Ohio; Mrs. Adda Wright and daughter Madonna Wright, of Astoria, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Trotter of Richmond, Indiana. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Alexander and son Dell, also Mr. Don Dickinson and Lee Skillen. The guests enjoyed the many attractions of the farm by helping in the hay field and some preferred sleeping in hay shock. After two days, the festivities closed with a sumptuous feast which will long be remembered by all.

Baptist Church Announcements

(Contributed)

If you have been a regular attendant at the Baptist church, you will have noticed the increase in every department from the Sunday school on up to the money in the treasury. At the regular quarterly business meeting of the church the treasurer reported the church free from debt and money in the treasury for the first time in its history. God has blessed the work in every department. An organ has been purchased for the primary department. The Young Peoples Society hopes to give a social or hay rack party next Thursday. Come out to the meetings Sunday night at 7 o'clock and hear the definite announcements. The Sunday school holds its regular meetings at 10 a. m. Sunday. At the hour of 11 Rev. Proppe will preach on the subject, "Old Wells Dug Up," and in the evening he will preach on "The All Sufficiency of Christ." You will miss good things if you stay away from these meetings. The buildings are cool and the services short so come out and enjoy them.

A Shoe Sale

We do not have special shoe sales on certain days, but there are many days in the course of a year when we have bargains. Very often we close out a certain brand at a low price and if you can be fitted in that particular brand left in stock, you save considerable money.

It is my purpose to not only satisfy you in style but to satisfy you in fit as well. A pair of shoes that hurt the feet are among man's worst enemies and so many have difficulty in getting fitted. We carry an assortment of sizes and there are not many feet that we cannot shoe satisfactorily. Try Kreamer and be suited.
