The "third party" in convention assembled is not qualifying as the "long felt want."

The Ford is living up to its name for being the general utility car. A baby was born in one in New York recently.

Lots of people are thinking that the two old parties would have been just as well off if they had reversed their candidates.

The anti-cigarette measure will not be on the ballot this fall because of a lack of signatures. Must be the petition peddlers got lazy. There are always enough signers available for anything.

Whereas, the two leading political parties of the United States have nominated genuine newspaper men for president who know how far it is from Etain to Shrdlu,

Be It Resolved, that we endorse the good judgment of said political parties, however reserving our opinion that had we functioned in a nominating capacity, Messrs. Cox and Harding would not have been the newspaper men selected, and

Be It Further Resolved, that as but one can be elected, we will refrain from speaking ill of either, realizing there will be plenty of others to do so, and

Be It Further Resolved, that whichever is elected the Republic will still live, tho it may be quite difficult to realize it at times.

THE RHYMING SUMMARIST

Sadie tells us in a serious way,
When the schoolma'ams killed the bear,
She'd have given a last year's bonnet
Too have been near or there;
From up a tree or behind a rock,
She'd yelled a frantic "Boo!"
It would be fun
To see them run,
A mile in twenty-two.

"There isn't any precedent
For all these red hot rays;
'Unusual' the natives blurb,
For early July Days.
The pavement melts and runs away,
And we are melting too;
Why shouldn't we
Muse longingly
Of Barney and the brew.

"We'll have to toddle right along
And say our little prayers
For breezes from the snow capped hills
To cool these desert airs."
So it is that Jerry Owen sings
And mindful of what he's saying
Us and you
Must come thru
And take our turn at praying.

The Sunday night show is "Checkers," the greatest racing drama in the world with thoroughbreds and high life intermingled with a basic drama of the human emotions. The exciting horse race scenes, the train wreck, the fight in the bo xcar, the encounters in Chinatown and the aeroplane flights will hold you spell bound. The beautiful love scenes will enchant you.

As the great serial, "Smashing Barriers" nears the end, the interest becomes greater. In episode 12 entitled, "Explosive Bullets," Monday and Tuesday nights, there are thrills galore. On the same nights there will be a great treat with Evelyn Nesbit (Thaw) and son, Russell Thaw, in "Her Mistake." If you were a woman and after several years of happily married life you discovered that your husband had again submitted to the fascination of an evil woman who had con- trolled and almost ruined him before he had even met you, what would you do? If you were a man who had married a woman much younger than yourself and you suddenly were given what you considered irrefutable evidence that your wife had renewed an affection which she had possessed for your nephew before her marriage to you, what would you do? These are two of the questions which require answering and which are answered in most unusual fashion in "Her Mistake."

"Eyes of the World," the great Harold Bell Wright story on Wednesday and Thursday nights. This great story held your interest in the book, it will delight you in picture.

Marion Davies as the Salvation Army lassie in the screen version of that famous musical comedy "The Belle of New York" Friday night. The plot of this story is built around a young and noble spendthrift of the "higher ups" who meets his fate in a Salvation Army lassie.

All fans are pleased when a Harry Carey picture is on the week's program and the one on Saturday night, "The Rider of the Law" is one of Harry's best. It is a story of a U. S. ranger, reformed from an outlaw life, whom fate forces to arrest his former associates. Only to find that their leader is his own brother and that brother, the man between his sweetheart and himself.

"Everybody Wins"

(Monmouth Herald)
By the decision of Judge McCourt in Portland last Friday on the west side highway case, everybody wins, and everybody is happy. It was a decision calculated to make the shade of his late excellency, King Solomon, turn over in his grave with envy. The Judge ruled that Independence and Dallas get the highway and the commission gets its short cut and Monmouth gets its south road improved. Therefore we all smile, the sunshine never looked brighter and the whole landscape basks in its radiance.

A Sure Way

A Methodist preacher went fishing, and suddenly sneezing, lost both sets of his teeth in the river. He tied a chicken leg on a string, dropped it in the water, and as soon as he felt a pull, drew out the line and found his upper and lower teeth firmly fastened in the chicken's leg.—Lawrence (Kan.) Gazette.

"Are You Getting Real Tobacco?"

says the Good Judge

There's more good, lasting taste in a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than you get out of the ordinary kind.

You don't need a fresh chew nearly so often—that's why it costs you less to chew this class of tobacco.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles

RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco
W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco
