CITY AND COUNTRY

Meet Conklin Sunday.

Marion Butler is here from Portland today.

Miss Emma Henkle went to Portland Monday to return the last of the week.

Mrs. Hobart Dickson has returned from a visit of several weeks with Seattle relatives.

Andrew Hannon of Pe-dee received a scalp wound from a stray bullet while out hunting one day last week.

Dr. H. C. Dunsmore will go to Portland tomorrow and in company with the Maeys will pass his vacation at Belknap Springs.

The Salem band will give a concert at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the Monmouth Normal campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smiley and daughter, Ernestine, will leave next Tuesday for Nova Scotia where they will visit Mr. Smiley's mother.

I. D. Mix has been taking his vacation this week. We don't know where he went, but as he is accustomed to going about without a chap-eron, it doesn't matter.

Several weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson of Vancouver, B. C., were in Independence to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh. They were so delighted with the hospitality they returned Tuesday from a motor trip to San Francisco and stopped for another brief visit with their relatives. Mr. Henderson visited a brother he had not seen for several years.

Last Monday night the K. P. had a rousing good fraternal time. They not only had a time among themselves but they had visitors present from several neighboring towns to witness the degree work. Not being content with "home grown" oratory they had a speaker from Oakland, Cal. They were content, however, with home prepared food and the local chef prepared for the occasion a banquet fit for the most chivalrous Knight.

The members of the Methodist Ladies Aid neither cease nor tire in their activities. Last Thursday they gave a most delightful surprise function for a quartet of their diligent members. The honorees were: "Auntie" Ingram, Mrs. Chas. Smiley, Mrs. Chas. Kurre and Mrs. Ingermanson. The committee in charge had tastily decorated the church with vari-colored sweet peas and Shasta daisies. The tables were not only laden with flowers, but with delicious food for the birthday repast. No candles radiated a glow over the scene because these ladies absolutely refused to reveal their ages. There were forty-one guests present to enjoy the pleasant event. On Sunday Mrs. Ingram received another surprise when the primary Sunday school presented her with a beautiful Bible in token of her faithful services. Miss Pauline Perry made the presentation speech. The words of the little Miss were well chosen and delivered and "Auntie" Ingram merits all the praise accorded her.

INDEPENDENCE BOY WINS FRENCH BRIDE

The bombardment over Richardson dragged himself back to the ambulance station, from where he was transported to an American hospital train and finally to the American base hospital at Bordeaux. He was at Bordeaux when the armistice was signed.

He graduated from the Independence high school and later from the Monmouth Normal.

Don't be a slacker; eat Liberty bread.
