CITY AND COUNTRY

Farm your hills with a Fordson.

There are now 4000 Fordsons farming Oregon fields.

Mrs. Ben Johnson and daughter, Miss Vera, visited in Corvallis last Saturday.

Mrs. Green Hastings was here from Albany this week visiting at the Perl Hedges home.

Master Jack Harding returned Wednesday from a visit with his father in Portland.

The Auto Utilities Co. has sold a car to W. C. Hale and Case farm tractor to E. S. Henry.

McElmurry Bros. are at their height of harvesting. They are driving a new McCormick binder.

Mr. and Mrs. U. R. Graham of Monmouth were guests on Monday of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McElmurry.

The J. S. Coopers motored to Portland Wednesday. Master J. S. III and sister, Elizabeth, who have been visiting here, returned with them.

B. F. Boughev, whose business interests keep him away from Independence the major portion of his time, spent the week with his family on Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mattison returned last Tuesday from a pleasant motor trip to the coast. With them were Mr. Mattison's brother and his wife from Astoria.

Mrs. Clyde Williams has had as her house guests, her sister, Mrs. Bush of Portland, Mrs. Hastings also of the Rose City, and another sister, Mrs. Turner of Air-lie.

Neither gold nor the woman could defeat William Farnum in the Western romance, "The Joyous Troublemakers." At Isis, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Davidson and D. L. Hedges will leave Tuesday for Bar View where they will open the Davidson cottage for an indefinite time.

Mr. McLinn, a former yard boss at the Mitona hop ranch, has purchased the Olen Whiteaker residence property on Ash street and has moved his family into the same.

Franklin Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Gillespie, arrived from Centralia, Wash., yesterday morning to visit Independence friends. He is a guest at the W. H. Craven home.

Manager Archibald of the Mt. States Power Co. left Monday for California to spend his vacation. He will be accompanied home by his wife and baby who will make their home here.

Mrs. Lou Walton is a guest at the home of her nephew, Jeter Virgin. Mr. Virgin and his sister, Miss Hattie of Missouri, who is also a guest at the Virgin home, were left orphans and were raised by Mrs. Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey (Edna Gilmore) were here from southern California this week visiting old friends. The Gilmores were former residents of this place and owned the A. D. Davidson property on Monmouth street.

Mrs. Susan Jones and daughters, Misses Katharine and Grace and Mrs. Jennie Richards of Corvallis, were visiting relatives here over the week end. Mrs. Jones recently disposed of her residence property on Fifth street.

Frank Anstine of Seward Nebr., and L. A. Dickinson of Dallas were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Brunk the first of the week. Tuesday the party visited relatives in Corvallis. The two gentlemen are brothers-in-law of Mrs. Brunk.

Clyde Williams, our "Perfect Service" druggist, returned the first of the week from a fishing excursion on the Salmon river. He says that he caught lots of fish and we've no right to question the statement. However, "seeing is believing."

Mabel Claire Ground expects to go to New York City in September to continue her musical studies with the music masters of America's musical center. Since graduating in Chicago, she has maintained a studio in Portland and instructed classes both in Independence and Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plant and children, Gordon and Marjorie, returned Saturday from a sojourn at Newport. They report a delightful vacation and state that they participated in all the beach activities. Walter brought home a freak sea devil which he keeps chained at his home.

Friends here will be delighted to know that after a long siege of illness at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Mrs. Oliver Smith was able to be removed to the home of friends last Tuesday. She writes that she is able with a little assistance to go to her meals. We hope to have her home soon.

F. R. Wetherbee, a former merchant of this place, who has been living in Salem for some time, has closed his business in the capital city and with his family is moving to Eugene where he has purchased an interest in the Dean Walker Furniture Store. The Wetherbees lived in the university city before coming to Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Miller are rejoicing over the advent of a 9-lb. son who made his appearance Wednesday morning. At this time no cognomen of sufficient importance has been found for the remarkable youth. Gus says he'll be ready by hop-picking time to help with the office work at the City Market. The following bulletin has been issued about the father: "Pulse normal, temperature at a healthy average." In the meantime we are getting overweight in steaks and roasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hubbard and son, Billie, motored from Portland Saturday to visit at the Hubbard ranch. Sunday and Monday they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard and their guest Mrs. D. B. Johnson of San Francisco and the party visited Waterloo, Sodaville and all the places of interest in the Lebanon country. The Claud Hubbards returned to Portland Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Johnson who will visit in the Rose City a few days before returning to San Francisco.

Relatives here have received announcement of the birth of a son, July 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scovell of Seattle. He has been christened David Lorin. With the advent of this delightful young gentleman, Mrs. Sara Tharpe Shelton, one of Independence's most highly respected pioneers, becomes great-great-grandmother and her brother,

"Daddy" Hedges falls heir "over night" to the title, great-great uncle. The young hopeful is named for "Daddy" Hedges and it is hoped that his life will be as useful and exemplary as the one for whom he was christened.

Hailing from Mineral Wells, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wood are the guests of Postmaster Homer S. Wood and family. W. J. is an uncle of Homer and has been visiting his brother, John H. Wood, the postmaster's father and an extensive wheat grower at Arlington. The Lone Star people were accompanied to Independence by the Arlington relatives. Arriving here the Gibson Well water of the fashionable resort city of Texas, the 1920 wheat yield of Eastern Oregon and the big hop prospects of the Willamette valley provided interesting conversation for the family gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Patterson had as their guests last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Norton and son of Lewisville. Mrs. Ashney Plunkett of Kings Valley and Mrs. Sara Watson of Idaho. The Pattersons and their guests were school friends in the primitive days and had not seen each other for over fifty years. They discussed "log cabin" school days and then departed in their automobiles. Mr. Norton, Jr., is a prosperous farmer of the beautiful little valley. Mr. Patterson in the early days boarded at the Watson home which was only a half mile from the home of Mrs. Patterson's parents.

Farm your hills with a Fordson.

Do you live in Independence? Then why not patronize her industries. Eat Liberty bread.

HERE'S YOUR HAT!

Any old hat on some men's head feels good to them and it don't take style nor beauty to get by with them. But it don't pass with the public. When a man is judged by his clothes, it doesn't take a Sherlock Holmes to tell you that if the hat's wrong it spoils the remainder of the scenery. The most expensive suit and shoes ever made will not make a man look dressed up if he wears an ill-fitting and unbecoming hat. Kreamer is a hatter as well as a clothier and he will show you a most excellent assortment of hats, one of which will dress you up and make you look like a man.

O. A. Kreamer
