THE TALE OF A SHIRT!

When it comes to shirts, Kreamer can tell a long tale, but did you ever stop to consider that men and boys buy more shirts than any other piece of wearing apparel. If you buy cheap shirts you do not save money for cheap shirts were made to sell not wear. It is to the interest of the pocketbook to buy a good grade of shirts and Kreamer has them—sport shirts, silk shirts, dress shirts, wool shirts, work shirts. All colors, all sizes, with or without collars. Of course, he can sell you a cheap shirt if you want it, but get in the habit of buying good shirts of Kreamer and be satisfied. The prices are right and so are the shirts.

O. A. Kreamer

Henkle and Mrs. Dixon were college friends and exchange visits annually.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Reeves and children arrived Sunday to visit at the L. G. Reeves home. Mrs. Chetelat, also of the Rose city, the youngest daughter of the L. G. Reeves is a guest at the home of her parents.

Misses Gretchen and Madeline Kreamer visited Portland friends this week. Master Jack Pengra, who has been a guest at the Kreamer home for several weeks, returned to his home in Portland with the Misses Kreamer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, Mrs. A. D. Davidson, "Daddy" Hedges, Mrs. James Allen Martin and James Allen Jr. of Portland left Tuesday morning for Bar View where they expect to remain indefinitely at the Davidson cottage.

Miss Ulla Dickinson has accepted a position as first grade teacher in the schools of Grants Pass. A nice beginning for the young lady. Miss Dickinson was one of the most popular students in the senior cottage at the Normal the past year and we predict she will be equally popular as an instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Damon entertained a house party of friends and relatives last Sunday including Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stuart of Portland, Miss Stuart of Boise, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke and Mr. and Mrs. Hussey of Salem and Milton Hartman of Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart expect to move to Winlock, Wash., some time soon. They have large lumber interests in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hosford, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Henry Patterson of Portland were here Saturday on their way to Crater Lake. Despite the invitations from their friends the party camped at the park and were profligate in their praises of what nature has done for the spot. With a little more "man ambition" they believe it could be made a very inviting stopping place for motorists.

A RELIEF

"What did father say when you asked permission to marry me? Did he really consent?"
"Consent? I'll say he did. He seemed relieved."

CHILDREN AVERT PANIC.

A Jefferson City paper reports that a panic was averted in the largest motion picture house in the town one night recently by a number of children who occupied front seats. A terrific storm came up and in the midst of the tempest the lights went out. The crowd in the theater took fright, but the children immediately struck up "Over There," which nearly every one knew, the orchestra took up the tune and presently the entire crowd sang until candles could be brought to light the audience out—Kansas City Times.

ITS RESULT.

"There was one fact which color to the deportation scheme of the government."
"What was that?"
"It gave the reds the blues."
