"Daddy" Hedges returned Monday from Bar View where he has been domiciled at Fern Cliff with the McIntosh-Davidson party. He reports that the Independence colony is having a good time and that J. G. McIntosh has grown to be a famous (?) nimrod, stating that he fishes every day and hadn't yet landed enough to cook.

Mrs. Oliver Smith's many friends will be delighted to know that she is home from the Good Samaritan hospital where she has been for over three months. She was taken there for treatment on May 2, tho she was able to spend a few days with friends before returning home. She is still quite weak, but is rapidly regaining her former strength.

It didn't take Percy Dickinson long to decide while delivering mail Tuesday forenoon to surrender the right-of-way when he saw a runaway team coming hitched to a binder. As it was he failed to get entirely in the clear and the binder struck the fender of the car. The team, belonging to W. L. Roberts, didn't stop but went madly on. If Mr. Roberts could get such fast service in the field from this team as displayed in this instance, he could cut all his grain in thirty minutes.

COVERING UP A FELLOW

Covering up a fellow—whether he's little or big, short or tall, slim or fat—that is Kreamer's business. He's been at it long enough to know what fits and looks well. No charges for his experience and advice. Go to him for everything a man or boy wears—hat, collar, tie, shirt, underwear, belt, vest, trousers, sox, hose supporters and shoes. The cost to you on every article is just that article's value at current prices or less. Only a moderate profit is asked for and the same to everybody. No goods marked up or marked up and down again. You get a $10 pair of shoes for $10 or less—never more—at Kreamer's.
