THE MAN WORKING COME HERE

Don't think that Kremer would keep you "dressed up" all the time. Most men are engaged in occupations that do not permit of them wearing "good" clothes while working. For the man who works Kremer is prepared to take care of him in A. No. 1 shape. He can sell him a shirt, coat, a pair of trousers or shoes that were especially made to stand hard knocks and get by under the roughest treatment. He can't guarantee that they won't get dirty, but he has shirts and pants that can be washed every day and kept clean. Those who are going to pick hops should be outfitted at Kremers. Everything sold with the guarantee that its worth the money or more.

It isn't the amount you feed that counts—it is the amount assimilated that builds. OLYMPIC Stock and Poultry Feeds—easily assimilated themselves—make "rib-sticking" material out of other feed stuffs.
