The Parting Gift

Have you been looking for a parting gift for the boy or girl who is leaving for college this month?

We have just the thing for you—a lovely sapphire ring or pin. Could anything be nicer than favoring them with something really worth while, something to prize all through their college life?

We suggest a sapphire stone because it is the jewel of September, but any one of our big selection will be acceptable.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Attend Co. K's big smoker Friday night, Sept. 17. Ladies invited.

Hop Pickers—Come to the Baptist church Sunday and hear some fine singing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. George Kutch spent last Sunday in Aurora.

Dr. and Mrs. Horn and two children of Newberg have been visiting at the J. S. Bohannon home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. H. Mattison spent Sunday in Albany enjoying a picnic dinner enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hibbs and Master Jack Harding have returned from Newport where they passed the summer at the Hibbs cottage.

A daughter arrived recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bewley. The youthful guest has been christened Thelma Eloise.

There's a hat in Mrs. Bascue's early fall showing that will suit the style of all customers. See her display at the millinery opening Saturday.

Friends here have received announcement of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul Todd (Ruth Hodge) of Napavine, Wash. The young lady has been christened Ruth Pauline.

Mrs. Carl Ranzell of Tucson, Arizona, is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Snapp. Mrs. Ranzell says mercury has soared to 125 in the Arizona town and she would not mind a fur coat in the cool Oregon climate.

Mrs. Alice Honeyman was a week end guest at the home of Mrs. Nancy Whiteaker, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Honeyman. She was returning from Long Beach, Wash., and left Monday for Seattle.

Miss Katharine Arbutnot returned Wednesday from Klamath Falls where she attended a teachers' institute. Miss Arbutnot also enjoyed a very interesting trip to Crater Lake which was made with a party of geologists.

Last Sunday was a supremely happy day at the O. A. Kreamer home. The occasion was the celebration of the 29th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kreamer, prominent and popular citizens of this city. Relatives came from the University city, the Capital city and Canby to join in the celebration.

For the wedding feast the spacious dining room was converted into an autumnal bower. A profusion of golden rod and sun flowers made a scene of golden-hued beauty. Vivid hued nasturtiums that blend so harmoniously with the golden blossoms were used on the chandeliers, trailing gracefully from the electroliers to the perfectly and artistically appointed table where covers were placed for seventeen. Yellow shaded lights also made the scene a more golden one. The Misses Gretchen and Madaline Kreamer, attractive daughters of the O. A.'s, most capably served the several course dinner. Seated around the festal board were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Armstrong and daughters, the Misses Mae and Aileen, and son, John, of Eugene, Dean Duvall and Miss Sue Bodjansky, also of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Douglas, Pearl and Lewis Douglas of Canby, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Steele of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kreamer and Misses Gretchen and Madaline Kreamer. The dinner was thoroughly enjoyed and many pleasant reminiscences

The Olympic Line

The Proof Of The Pudding

Once you have used OLYMPIC Flour you'll never be content without it. Cooks appreciate its firmness and flavor. But the "Proof of the Pudding" is the way the folks enjoy the splendid breads and pastries made with it.

"The Meat of the Wheat", GEMME Wheat Hearts make the ideal breakfast food.

Even waffles are easily made with GEMME Pancake Flour.

If your poultry just boards with you—instead of producing, GEMME Poultry Feeds will put them to work. Use OLYMPIC Stock Feeds, too.
