Professional baseball has recently been brought into ill repute. Certain members of the Chicago White Sox turned crook for a few thousand dollars. Promptly baseball officials met the issue without evasion. The guilty players were barred from baseball forever, tho it cost the owner of the White Sox at least one hundred thousand dollars. But public confidence is restored and while it may expect crookedness at times in many of the other leading sports, baseball will be clean.

The example of the White Sox crooks will be a warning to all other players who may be tempted to go wrong. The eight guilty, all stars earning big money, can never play again and wherever they may go will be branded with the mark of Cain. They have not only lost a sum far in excess of the amount they received for going wrong, but have sacrificed their reputations and nation-wide popularity as well.

If Oregon can get a stretch of respectable weather between now and Nov. 2 it won't care who is elected.

THE RHYMING SUMMARIST

(By Jerry Owen in Oregon Voter.)

Each day we're being importuned
To join athletic clubs
To keep us lithe so we will not
Be classed among the dubs.
We're urged to scale the mountain peaks
And hike on rocky trails,
With springy step
And loads of pep
And muscles hard as nails.

Well, we have seen these husky gents
That throng the grocery store;
They grab a loaded sugar cask
And heave it through the door,
Or lift the hind end of a truck
That weighs a half a ton;
They sling baled hay
Around all day
And think it's only fun.

But all the Sandows we have seen
Have early paid the debt,
And on their graves neurotic folks
Lay thyme and mignonette;
The pale and spindling ones survive
And live their span of years,
But for the thewed
And brawny brood
We're always shedding tears.

PEDEE

Orville J. Oliver and Miss Florence E. Stonehocker were married this week. They are popular young people of this locality. Mr. Oliver is engaged in the mill business at Kings Valley.

Homer Link received a bad injury a few days ago when a horse he was riding fell and in the descent to the ground, Mr. Link lit under the horse, causing serious injury to his hips.

Baptist Church Doings

Reserve Sunday, Oct. 17, to attend the Rally Day services of the Baptist church and Sunday school. High School Students: Have you ever attended a service of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church? Sunday evening at 6:30 we will have a special treat. Some of the high school will sing. Miss Erna Boughey is to lead the meeting. Come and see if you don't like us.

Come to the Baptist church next Sunday and enjoy yourself among good people. Our Sunday school is growing every Sunday but there is room for you. Come out and try it once. Rev. Proppe preaches at 11 o'clock on the subject, "A Grain of Wheat." A lively bunch of young folks meet at 6:30. At 7:30 the pastor speaks again on "The Causes and Cures of Blacksliding." Strangers most cordially invited.

Christian Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. All invited.

Do you live in Independence? Then why not patronize her industries. Eat Liberty bread.

"Here's Real Tobacco"

says the Good Judge

That gives a man more genuine chewing satisfaction than he ever got out of the ordinary kind. Smaller chew, lasts longer — so it costs less to chew this class of tobacco.

And the good, rich tobacco taste gives a world of satisfaction.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles

The Olympic Line

You Make the Final Test

Chemists in our laboratory and cooks in our kitchens test OLYMPIC Flour at every phase of the milling. Each sack must register uniform flavor and baking qualities. In order to appreciate this good flour we suggest you test it in your own kitchen.

Energy and strength are supplied in the concentrated nutrition of OLYMPIC Wheat Hearts. It's the ideal breakfast food.

Pancakes made from OLYMPIC Pancake Flour top off a good breakfast.

Healthy barnyards make wealthy farmers. A good many hale, healthy barnyards are the result of OLYMPIC scientifically blended stock and poultry feeds.
