When its cold its hot

That's the fact about a THERMOS bottle. In the chilly and cold days of Fall and Winter, fill up your THERMOS bottle with hot coffee in the morning and it will still be hot at noon, regardless of weather. Those who carry their lunches with them find the THERMOS the best pal on earth. We have the THERMOS in many sizes and various prices.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Mrs. Mina Serraford has moved to Independence.

Mrs. Oliver Smith visited Isabella Burton and Chester the solemn marriage vows that made them one.

The bride was never more beautiful than in her wedding robe of ivory satin fashioned along becoming lines and embellished with Princess lace. Her bouquet was a shower of hushing bride rose buds with lilies of the valley. Immediately following the service an elaborate buffet breakfast was served. The bridal table was adorned with the brides cake decorated with smilax and cupid. Mrs. Chas. Fitchard poured and Mrs. O. D. Butler served the tea which were shared in the wedding ball mounds. The bridesmaids were Mrs. A. J. Ward, last Sunday.

Entire stock of Ladies' coats, suits and dresses at pre-war prices at Mrs. Gregory's store in Dallas.

Mrs. McDewitt, who has been at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Conroy, left Friday for Roseburg.

Mrs. J. D. Reeves underwent a serious operation in a Salem hospital Monday and at this time is doing very well.

Henkle-Burton

Mrs. Henkle is the daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Burton and a sister of Mrs. A. B. Robinson. She is admired by all and loved most by those who know her best and will prove a coveted prize for the home. Mr. Henkle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Henkle of Philomath and has made his home here with the W. H. Walkers for a number of years. He and Ross Nelson are the joint owners of the Isis theatre and Mr. Henkle is Independence's only undertaker. He has the esteem of a wide circle of friends and is thoroughly qualified for the position he has assumed.

An array of charming and useful wedding gifts were presented by admiring friends. Mr. and Mrs. Henkle received the congratulations of their friends at an informal reception and left for a brief motor trip to Portland, Hood River and Independence Saturday.

Mrs. Henkle's going away suit was a handsome blue tulle elaborately bridled. The costume was completed with becoming accessories.

Following the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Henkle will be at home to their friends at the Kirkland residence on C street.
