

THE POLK COUNTY POST

ONE HUNDRED PERCENT INDEPENDENCE

VOLUME III

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON, OCTOBER 29, 1920.

NUMBER 31.

Vote For Kreamer

There was a man by the name of Jacoby who never wore an overcoat, coat or vest except on special occasions. He was just as comfortable in the coldest days of winter as he would be in the summer time. How could he do it? He began the habit when a youth and depended upon underwear to keep him warm. He was as particular about his underwear as most men are their suits. Underwear is just as important in keeping the body warm as any other article of clothing. Its main use is not keeping the body from "scratching" on the outside clothing as some assume. This store keeps an unusually large variety constantly on hand. Thick, thin and medium—all qualities—all styles.

Baptists Mix Well

The game of getting acquainted and the game of poetry of motion from the hand to the mouth were two principal features of amusement at the "Baptist Mixer" Wednesday night. Provided for the one were cards bearing the names of each guest which were pinned in a conspicuous place so that each one might know the other without a formal introduction. Provided for the latter was a most sumptuous repast that prosperous farmers and town members could furnish. All the good things included in culinary art were there in abundance and the banquet boards were beautifully decorated with choice dahlias grown by Mrs. M. W. Mix. An enjoyable program followed the dinner. Those appearing on the program were Emma Werline, reading; Mildred Goodman, song; Paul Scott, solo; Glen Burright, violin solo with Ruth Dickinson at the piano; Rev. and Mrs. Proppe, readings.

A business session occupied the remainder of the time. Rev. Proppe was again chosen pastor of the church and the following officers were elected: Oscar Moore and W. H. Park, deacons; Mrs. G. W. Werline, deaconess; Mrs. Grace Swope, clerk; B. F. Swope, treasurer; G. W. Werline, W. A. Scott and Joe Boler, trustees; Mrs. Proppe, pianist; Lester Moore and Arthur Ward, ushers; Edna Burkholtz and Emma Boler, assistant ushers; Paul Scott Sunday school superintendent.

ELECTION TUESDAY: SIX FOR PRESIDENT

A most quiet presidential election comes to a close Monday night and on the following Tuesday the electors will choose between six candidates: Warren G. Harding, republican; James M. Cox, democrat; Aaron S. Watkins, prohibitionist; Eugene V. Debs, socialist; William W. Cox, industrial labor; Harley P. Christensen, farmer labor. The last named is not represented on the Oregon ballot. Should a voter feel so disposed, under the electoral vote system, he could cast one-fifth of a vote for the five candidates on the ballot.

The odds are favorable to Harding's election. The senate seems sure to be democratic.

It is generally conceded that Harding will carry Oregon. Chamberlain will be elected senator. Cox will carry Independence. Chamberlain will get a majority in nearly every precinct in Polk county.

City Election Tuesday

City election Tuesday. There is but one ticket upon the ballot. A number of the friends of Peter Kurre will vote for him for councilman for the four year term. This can be done by writing his name on the ballot and then putting an X in front of the written name. Unless the X is there the vote will not be counted.

The city election board consists of W. H. Walker and Mrs. Mary E. Dornisfe judges and Mesdames W. E. Craven, Grover Mattison and Clyde Ecker clerks.

Double Wedding

Miss Alta Buffum and L. D. Ruch and Miss Mav Taylor and G. E. Buffum were married in Salem Monday. Both couples are well known in Independence and have many friends who wish them a successful married life.

"Capital and Industry--Keep Out!"

WOULD YOU, AS A PATRIOTIC CITIZEN OF OREGON, PLACE SUCH A SIGN ON THE BORDERS OF THE STATE?

That is exactly what you will help to do if you do nothing to prevent the passage of measure No. 314 and 315 on the November ballot entitled, "Constitutional Amendment Fixing Legal Rate of Interest in Oregon."

This measure proposes to limit the rate of interest in Oregon to 5 per cent. You can, by law, fix the rate of interest in Oregon, but you cannot, by law, force the loaning of money in this state, when a much higher rate can be secured elsewhere. The passage of this measure would force the withdrawal of the millions of foreign capital which is today loaned on factories, business and real estate in the state and send your local money owners outside of the state to better investments.

Passage of this measure would mean foreclosure of thousands of mortgages; would result in financial paralysis, and would mean widespread unemployment.

You, no doubt, understand the viciousness of this measure, but have you talked to your neighbors and friends about it? We urge you to do everything you can to defeat this measure. Oregon's reputation as a sound state for investments requires that this measure be overwhelmingly defeated.
