

WHEN ITS HOT ITS COLD
WHEN ITS COLD ITS HOT

That's the fact about a THERMOS bottle. In the chilly and cold days of Fall and Winter, fill up your THERMOS bottle with hot coffee in the morning and it will still be hot at noon, regardless of weather. Those who carry their lunches with them find the THERMOS the best pal on earth. We have the THELMOS IN many sizes and various prices.

Mr. Tripp in Iowa

Callender, Iowa, Oct. 29—I am here at mother's now. Had a swell time in Minneapolis and am sure having a swell time here. I arrived "home" the day before my birthday and, of course, they had to give me a big birthday party. They have just got a good start with corn husking with a bumper crop but it nearly kills them to know they have to sell this year's corn at 64 cents and their oats at 40 cents. We have been having just fine weather here and had a weinie roast out on the banks of the Mississippi in the evening and it was real warm. Everything looks about the same but these Iowa farmers sure have their farms in a high state of cultivation. We drove down in an auto from Minneapolis and when we got here had a regular reunion. All present except R. W. Tripp of Albany, Ore. The sun shines all the time here and here's hoping everything is fine out there.
E. E. TRIPP.

Nov. 1—Have received Post. It sure seems get a paper from home that has so much local news in it. You are putting out one of the best papers in that state especially for local news.

Social Events of the Week

Mrs. Crosby Davis and Mrs. Ellen Davis entertained sixteen ladies at a Hallowe'en party Saturday afternoon.

The Owls were delightfully entertained Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Walker. The regular members were supplemented by enough guests to make players for five tables of whist. The hostess served a palatable luncheon. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomas and Mrs. Ida Curtis of Corvallis who is a house guest of Mrs. J. S. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mattison were hosts Friday evening to the Kill Kare club. This being the first meeting of the season the reunion of members, besides the splendid hospitality offered by the hosts, made the gathering doubly enjoyable. In keeping with the festive season a Hallowe'en luncheon was served and Hallowe'en motifs used over the house. Players enjoyed several hands of whist while spooks, witches and black cats kept watch.
