NASH SIX

with Perfected VALVE-IN-HAND MOTOR

OWNERS of the Nash Six are most enthusiastic over the consistently high character of its performance.

It is not only its exceptional power which pleases them but also its extraordinary comfort, its unusual economy and its remarkable beauty of design and finish.

We believe that you too will be equally convinced of the superiority of the Nash Six by an actual demonstration of its ability.

There will be no decline in the price of Nash cars and trucks before July 1921.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Mrs. H. L. Proppe visited relatives in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith have gone to California to pass the winter.

Eddy & Carbrav's reconstruction sale is now on. 25 per cent off on everything in the store.

Mrs. Sam Muhleman, who has been in poor health for some time, is with her daughter, Esther, in Salem.

Why worry about the h. c. of l.? A reduction in price is being given on all trimmed hats at Alpha Bascue's.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison of Dallas were guests of the J. S. Robbins last week end.

The Farmers Cash Store has begun a stock reducing sale and a number of bargain prices are given elsewhere in this Post.

Silverware—yes we have the 50-year Community silver ware, and it is time that you were thinking about this. Look our new stock over. Willard E. Craven, Hdw.

Mrs. Susan Jones and daughters Misses Katharvn and Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson of Corvallis were here Thursday, the guests of the J. G. McIntosh and Newt Jones families.

The Civic Club will meet at the home of Mrs. O. D. Butler on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 24, promptly at 2:30. The committee in charge has arranged a very interesting afternoon. Members and friends invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Skinner very pleasantly entertained the Owls at their home Monday night. Guests were invited to make up six tables of whist and players thoroughly enjoyed the games and the hospitality extended by the Skinners. An excellent luncheon closed the evening.

The officers of the Pythian Sisters and a large number of members went to Falls City Wednesday night to assist in re-instating the lodge at that place. The Falls City people served an elaborate banquet at the close of the work and extended a full portion of fraternalism to the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Eldridge arrived Saturday from Medford. After a brief visit at the K. C. Eldridge home they went to Portland to attend the Ice Cream association and to visit relatives. In company with other members of the family they will return to pass Thanksgiving here.

Mrs. Anderson of Valley City, N. D., was here for a brief visit this week. In the fall Mrs. Anderson spent several weeks at the home of her brother, James Robbie, and went to California to pass several weeks before returning to her North Dakota home. She is loud in her praises of Oregon and thinks the beauties of "Our Oregon" far surpass our southern neighbor.

Civic Club Entertained

A most interesting event of last week was the Civic Club meeting held at the beautiful home of Mrs. K. C. Eldridge on Wednesday afternoon. The feature of the meeting was a detailed account of travels through the Orient related by Miss Todd, dean of women at O. N. S. This was a happy blending of humor, description, etc., with a touch of personal experiences. Miss Todd gathered a wonderful collection of exquisite souvenirs from Japan, China and Manila. The handsomely embroidered mandarin coats, skirts and finest textiles were beautifully displayed for the event. The handsome Eldridge home with its beautiful furnishings formed a splendid setting for the Oriental collection.

"Japan" has been selected by the club as the subject for study. Miss Todd's descriptive story of her trip through this interesting country formed a splendid introduction to the year's work.

The afternoon as a whole was one of the best the club has ever enjoyed and to the committee which included Mrs. Taylor Jones, Mrs. O. A. Kreamer and Mrs. O. D. Butler much praise is due for the splendid arrangement. Members of this committee, assisted by Miss Eva Robertson, were hostesses during the tea hour. The Misses Kathleen Skinner, Marjorie Reynolds and Fave Walker assisted in serving. Invitations were extended to club women of Corvallis, Salem, Aurora, Dallas, Monmouth, Buena Vista and Oak Point. Over fifty guests shared the delightful afternoon. Among the out of town ladies noticed were Mesdames J. R. Craven, Eugene Hayter, Oscar Hayter, Harry Cosper, Allgood, Walton, L. L. Smith and Hugh Black of Dallas; Mrs. M. J. Butler, Mrs. Howard Morlan, Mrs. Pember and Miss Jessica Todd of Monmouth and Mrs. A. J. Reynolds of Buena Vista.

The club has been fortunate in steadily increasing its membership since the opening in the fall. New members added on this occasion were: Mesdames U. G. Berry, Walter Plant, A. J. Richardson, J. McLeod, Howard Moreland, M. J. Butler, U. G. Hefflev, R. W. White, R. Walker, D. P. Mc Carthy, Martha Richardson, Z. C. Kimball, A. E. Horton and Misses Evre, Mabel Boughev and Esther Maag.

Kill Kares At Bohannons

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bohannon were very hospitable hosts to the Kill Kare Klub last Friday evening. Tables were placed for whist and many enthusiastic hands played. Mrs. Bohannon closed the evening with a very excellent luncheon.

Wages Go Down

The Kay Woolen Mills, Spaulding Logging Co. and Phez Co., three of Salem's largest enterprises, have notified their employees that a reduction of wages will go into effect at a certain time.

"Best One" Many Say

Many say that "Humoresque" was the best picture ever screened in Independence. A crowded house saw it Sunday and was enraptured. It cost the Isis folks a big piece of money to get this picture.

FARMS AND ACREAGE WANTED

For real service and results list your property with us. We have six salesmen with machines. We inspect and photograph your property and advertise extensively, and have a demand for property at all times. Fred W. German Co., 732 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Portland, Oregon. 43

Mrs. E. E. Tripp went to Portland last Saturday to visit relatives.

The Rooster in the Roaster

All Invited to Thanksgiving Dinner!

—No home is too small —All hands are invited
—nor too poor but has a Thanksgiving Dinner —And everybody eats
—When the chicken, till their stomachs' ache.
—When the duck, goose or turkey is ready

In many homes the ache comes before its time because the rooster was not cooked properly. This serious defect can be remedied by purchasing at this store a roaster that will not cause premature stomach ache. The prices range from 50c. to $9.50 and while you're here take a carving set home with you.
