

Another Royal Suggestion
Biscuits and Cinnamon Buns
From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

BISCUIT! So tender they fairly melt in the mouth, and of such glorious flavor that the appetite is never satisfied. These biscuits anyone can make with Royal Baking Powder and these unusual recipes.

Biscuits
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk or half milk and half water

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt, add shortening and rub in very lightly; add liquid slowly; roll or pat on floured board to about one inch in thickness (handle as little as possible); cut with biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Royal Cinnamon Buns
2 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
4 tablespoons seeded raisins

Sift 2 tablespoons of measured sugar with flour, salt and baking powder; rub shortening in lightly; add beaten egg to water and add slowly. Roll out 1/4-inch thick on floured board; brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and raisins. Roll as for jelly roll; cut into 1 1/2-inch pieces, place with cut edges up on well-greased pan; sprinkle with a little sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven 20 to 25 minutes; remove from pan at once.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

Made from Cream of Tartar, derived from grapes.

FREE

Write TODAY for the New Royal Cook Book; contains 400 other recipes just as delightful as these.

Address
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
115 Fulton Street, New York City

Smart Evening Reception

(Continued from Page 1.)

charming bride who completely won the admiration of the guests.

For diversion eight tables were placed for auction 500 which was enthusiastically played until a late hour.

The hostess was assisted in serving a delectable three course luncheon—a triumph of culinary art—by Mrs. K. C. Eldridge, Jr. While lingering over the coffee cups an Edison added to the merriment and good cheer of the occasion. An invitation to the Eldridge home is always coveted as nothing is spared to make their social functions complete in every detail.

Guests for the occasion included Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Duganne, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler, Messrs and Mesdames H. B. Fletcher, S. B. Walker, U. G. Berry, A. B. Robinson, C. W. Henkle, Grover Mattison, Frank Dickson, Merritt Schoonover, K. C. Eldridge, Jr., Neville Eldridge, A. L. Thomas, Clyde Ecker, Miss Arbuthnot, H. Hirschberg, Lawrence and Delos Eldridge.

Hope Revived

For several years citizens of Steele county, North Dakota, have been coming to Oregon, leaving Hope behind them. After living here for awhile and enjoying happiness and prosperity, they conceived the idea of getting together and kindling the old home fires for mutual diversion. This occurred last week when four score of them gathered at McMinnville and spent the day in speaking, toasting, singing and dancing. Then an organization was perfected and it was voted to celebrate Thanksgiving each year and to hold an annual summer picnic.

Those present from Independence were Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams, Mrs. Molly Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Fuller and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Williams and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sparks and family.

Phone The Post the news.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Mrs. Nancy Whiteaker is home from Portland.

Mrs. W. R. Maillie was a Portland visitor this week.

Oliver Smith has opened a pool hall in the Whiteaker building.

Master Jack Harding spent Thanksgiving in Portland with his father.

Raleigh Taylor has gone to Alpine where he has a good position in a garage.

Lee Robinson was buying Christmas presents for his lady friends in Portland last week.

Mrs. Dean Baughman has returned from a delightful visit with relatives in Washington.

Fritz Torgeson was here from Albany last week. Fritz' "come backs" are always welcome.

Master "Jim Ted" Cooper of Portland is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sloper and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Robbie passed Thanksgiving with McMinnville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McMurry and Mr. and Mrs. Oren McMurry visited friends in Crabtree last week.

Chas. Richardson and family were here from Air-lie last week visiting his mother, Mrs. Martha Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hubbard and young son of Portland were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Gillespie of Centralia, Wash., were the Thanksgiving guests of their daughter, Mrs. Walter Smith.

E. E. Paddock is dispensing groceries to customers at the McIntosh grocery. Mr. Paddock is thoroughly efficient and very much at home in a place of this kind.

A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lorence at Walla Walla, Wash., and Mrs. Nora Mattison is at the Lorence home getting acquainted with her new grand son.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Schoonover and Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge, Jr., who were Thanksgiving house guests at the Eldridge home, returned to Portland Friday.

K. C. Eldridge, former owner of the Independence creamery, has sold out his business interests in Portland. We are glad to hear this as sufficient persuasion might induce him to return to the "old stamping ground" and re-enter the business field.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann and two children were here from Pendleton the first of the week visiting at the J. S. Cooper home. Mr. Mann is a nephew of Mr. Cooper and the party were driving in a Cole Eight, the point of destination being California where they will spend the winter.

When you want the best call for Liberty bread. Baked by electricity.

Keep The Post phones ringing.

Announcement
to all Customers

On and after December 10, 1920, the Ace Garage will conduct business on a strictly cash basis. The energies and expense that heretofore have been used in book keeping and collections will be expended in giving you better goods and better service at lower cost.

In addition to other reductions a part of the saving will come to you in the form of a Cash Discount of Two Percent on all Tires, Tubes, Oils, Accessories and Labor Charges.

Yours for greater mutual profits.

Ace Garage Independence

K Officers Meet Chief

Captain Louis W. Seggel and his right and left bowers, Lieutenants Ira D. Mix and Frank E. Dickson attended a banquet in Portland Tuesday night in honor of Lieut. General Liggett, who is commander in chief of the national guard of the coast states. Mrs. Dickson accompanied her husband to Portland.

Tatters Meet At Thomas'

Mrs. A. L. Thomas was hostess Monday afternoon to the Tattling club. A dainty luncheon closed an afternoon of social converse and needlework.

Don't let a Christmas package go out from Independence without a Red Cross Christmas seal.

THE HOMELAND ENTERTAINERS

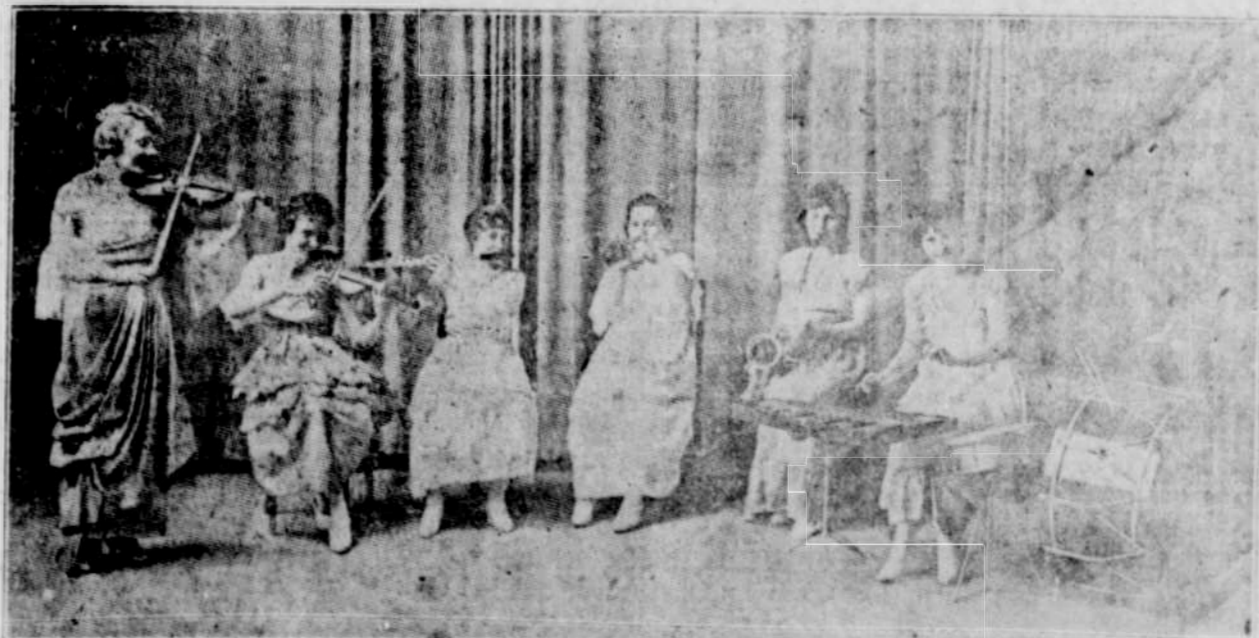

Each one of a series of entertainments, such as comprise this Fall Festival Program, is chosen with a definite object in view. The program, as a whole, must contain entertainment and instruction in well balanced proportions. On the second and fourth nights of the program will be the serious, instructive and intensely interesting lectures. We have reserved for the fifth night a closing attraction which will dedicate the evening to pure entertainment. The Homeland Entertainers have made a name for themselves in the East, where they have appeared on Chautauqua programs. The original members of the company, Mr. Ruminer, Miss Grunkemeyer and Mr. Davidson comprise the company.

Their program literally steams up with contrasting stunts. They present character readings and monologues, solo, duet and trio instrumental and vocal selections. And then to be sure you will go home hilarious enough, they wind up their program with a bunch of pure jazz.

Come the final night of this Festival, expecting good, clean entertainment and plenty of it, and you will not be disappointed.

ST. CECELIA SINGING ORCHESTRA

During the summer of 1920 upon one of the biggest Chautauqua circuits in the West, a company of girls literally made a killing. This was the St. Cecelia Singing Orchestra, which was composed of six charming, talented girls under the leadership of Miss Opal Williams. Throughout the season they were a riot, and when it came to choosing the talent to be brought back to the Coast on the Fall Festivals, they were quickly chosen for the principal musical event.

These girls play well and sing well and entertain splendidly. They appear first with an orchestral number, and then in rapid-fire order follow instrumental and vocal solos, duets and trios, and splendid ensemble numbers. One of the girls is a capital reader and adds greatly to the enjoyment. Their costuming is very fine, and they please the eye as well as the ear.

In short, their program on the third night of the Festival is a two-hour treat, packed full and brimming over with fun, fancy and finery, music, mirth and mimicry. They will send you away boosters for themselves and the management which brings them to you.

The Christmas Store
For Men and Boys

This is the time,
This is the place
for Useful Gifts

O. A. Kreamer