Odd Names for Fish.
 The bass of the South is the red fish; then we have the striped bass which has several vernacular names, says the American Forestry Magazine.
 All of our sunfishes, of which the common pumpkin-seed or tobacco-box is an example, have been designated as various kinds of basses; and there is the brassy bass, the calico bass, often confused with the crappie; the silver bass is another name for the "moon-eye."

Glass Washboards Lessen Friction.
 A glass washboard, although it breaks more easily, is to be preferred to a metal one because the friction on the clothes is less. However, if a metal washboard is used it should be thoroughly dry before being put away, so that it will not warp or attract waterbugs.

Communing With Herself.
 One day while mother went to town Bobby was left in grandma's care, who, always being alone, had developed the habit of thinking aloud. After watching her going about her work, talking to herself the while, Bobby innocently asked: "Is you tellin' yourself somesing, grandma?"

Explaining the Change.
 Little Betsy, her mother, and new daddy returned to the city after living on a ranch for several months. The child went to visit the Sunday school she had attended before she went away. The teacher was much surprised to see her and exclaimed, "Well, if here isn't Betsy McCann!" With a very indignant gesture the child replied: "No, this isn't Betsy McCann—it's Betsy Bryant; my mamma and I got married again."

 any chances whatever in these days of handshaking.

Make it Productive.
 "It's just an idle rumor." "Well, my wife's bridge club is in session. If those ladies get hold of that idle rumor, they'll soon put it to work."
 Louisville Courier-Journal.

When Visiting Portland, it might be well to visit Loe's Hippodrome Theatre. You can go in any time, stay as long as you want and witness a vaudeville show of an hour or more duration, and see a Metro movie. A matinee is given daily, and two performances at night, with continuous shows, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, the price within the reach of all—11c for children and 28c for adults at the matinee; 17c for children and 36c for adults in the evening. The Hippodrome is one of the largest and finest theatres on the Pacific Coast. Has a seating capacity of 2,000 and a ventilating system that is second to none.

 every child receives one of the famous

Last Night's Dreams

—What They Mean

DO YOU DREAM OF FRIENDS?

TO SEE friends in a dream is a good sign on the whole. If you simply dream of seeing an absent friend it means, according to the mystic authorities on such subjects, that there is pleasure ahead for you; probably you will receive good news soon.
 For people in love it foretells marriage, and to dream of absent friends is a sign of their speedy return, or that you will take a trip to the absent ones; at any rate that you will soon see them again. As to the proper manner of comporting yourself when you meet friends in a dream the authorities differ. But the consensus of opinion seems to be that you should not laugh and disport yourself with them, as hilarious behavior with friends in Dreamland is apt to take the edge off the good fortune which seeing them would otherwise bring you, may even subject you to some slight, temporary troubles. Shocking as it may appear though, it is considered by the seers to be lucky to see yourself taking a drink with them.
 That is, it has been considered heretofore, but probably future oracles will cut this sign out. At any rate be careful and don't take but "just one," for otherwise you might become sportive and hilarious with your dream friends and nullify your good luck.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"WHIST."

MANY persons, in seeking the derivation of the name of the popular card game, have come to the conclusion that it originated in any one of the popular ejaculations calling for silence or attention—the Latin "s," the German "hst," or the Scotch "whist." This explanation sounds logical, but there are others who as stoutly maintain that the name was derived from the fact that trumps "sweep" or "whisk" the board, a contention which is supported by a study of at least three of the languages which enter into the ground-work of English.
 Thus, in German, we find "wisch," meaning a "mop." In Danish, the equivalent of the verb "to wipe" is "viske" and in Scotch it is "wiska"—all of which bear a striking resemblance to the English "whist." Another form of the same word may be found in the term "whisk-broom," meaning a broom which whisks or flecks or wipes particles of dust from clothing and the like.
 "Whist," therefore, instead of signifying silence or attention, takes its name from the use of the trump-suit and naturally dates back to the days when the "no trumps" declaration was unknown.

HIS PARENTAL DUTY
 "I suppose, my dear, I'll have to perform the parental duty and take Willie to the circus."
 "But I don't want him to go this year."
 "Then I'll have to go with Smith."

Greek Civilization.
 Excavation at Knossos, Paestor and other sites in Crete has not merely established the existence of a people whose form of civilization was the earliest in Europe, says Discovery, but has shown much about their daily life games, amusements; their art, religious, writing—though hardly yet their language; their physical characteristics, dress and the houses they lived in. A huge palace, as big as Buckingham palace, has been unearthed at Knossos. It has a drainage system that an eminent Italian archaeologist has described as "absolutely English," and that certainly anticipates the hydraulic engineering of the nineteenth century. The men of science engaged in the work estimate the age of their discoveries at four thousand years.

 Dr. Pierce's Golden

 For a poor com-

In disease or dis-

 A pike weighing twenty-six pounds, erman, pulled him in the canal. His escape was much regretted by the fish, who had decided to have him stuffed.

Unlucky Thirteen.
 Nearly a dozen important streets in evidently in deference to the popular superstition which regards that number as unlucky.

No Time for "Common" Lunch.
 Buddy was eating as hearty a lunch as usual, when sister said: "Buddy, why are you eating so much common lunch? Don't you know we're going to a party this afternoon?"

School Teacher.—"Tommy, who was it that led the children of Israel into Canaan?" "I don't know, ma'am, but it wasn't me. I just moved here from Chicago."

 will repay you.—Adv.

 he got along with arithmetic that day.
 He answered with some pride: "I know'd almost as much as I didn't know."

Dear, Dear!

 sighed Hardup. "But he told me that I had struck him centsless."—Cincin-
