Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson and Mrs. G. E. Herman and daughter, Blanche, were shopping in Albany Saturday.

Mrs. Phillips, who has been visiting her brother, W. I. Reynolds and wife, returned to her home in Dallas Wednesday.

Mrs. M. V. Prather and grand daughter, Lela McCann, went to Harrisburg Saturday to attend religious services Sunday.

Thelma Aoe, who spent the holidays in Carlton, returned home last week accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Berry, and children.

Clarence Loy took Mr. Christian to Salem Saturday to bring the latter's daughter home. She has been at the hospital there.

Leland Prather, who met with an accident while driving logs for the Spaulding Co., went to Portland Friday to consult a doctor.

Jerry Whiteman, an old time resident of this place, was buried here last week. At one time he owned the hotel and ferry here. He was a Civil war veteran. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church. Dr. Dunsmore preached the sermon. Mr. Whiteman left to mourn his loss one son, John, of Talbot, and three daughters, Addie and Grace of Salem and Laura of Washington.

AIRLIE

Walter Dalton of Albany was in town Monday.

Miss Nell Link of Pelee motored to town Saturday afternoon.

William Englehorn was in Independence Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Steckley entertained a crowd of young people at their home Sunday.

Two of the high school girls, Misses Bessie Shenk and Pearl Davis, are attending Bible normal in Albany.

J. F. Weinart has purchased the Caughey property and expects to move about the middle of the month.

Miss Mattie Crook, Miss Beas Van Matre and Mrs. Cope land attended the teachers' institute at Rickreall Saturday.

J. C. Simpson, who underwent a very serious operation some time ago at one of the Portland hospitals, is rapidly recovering.

George Williamson received word last week of his mother's illness and left Friday morning for her home in Wyoming.

The Christian Endeavor held its monthly business meeting at the school house Friday evening. A large crowd of young people were present and all had an enjoyable time. Just before leaving we were entertained by Mr. Cope land who recited and by Mrs. Jones who delightfully rendered a few piano solos.

In the assembly room of the Airline school building on Monday morning when several of the pupils were answering roll by quotations, the professor looking at a little boy that had just come in and was about 20 minutes late, said: "All right, Dee, we are ready for your quotation." Dee, leaning on his desk, said in a very low, easy careless fashion: "Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

Painless Parker The Famous Dentist

PEOPLE living a hundred miles or more away come to my offices to have their teeth fixed up. I make it a rule that those from a distance shall be waited upon immediately and their work be completed first, so they can go back home as soon as possible.

twenty-eight offices, and all my associates in these offices have been taught how to practice painless dentistry as well as I can do it myself. We have fixed up the teeth of over a million people, and call our way of practicing "the E. R. Parker System."

Years ago I discovered how to extract and fix teeth without hurting, and was so successful that people called me "Painless" Parker. My practice has grown until I now have

CITY AND COUNTRY

[Omitted from our last issue because of lack of room.]

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McCarthy have returned from a several weeks' visit in California.

Sam Carmack has sold his farm northwest of Independence to John Schmebeck of Salem.

Mrs. Word Butler went to Portland Monday to visit relatives and to celebrate her natal day in the Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard returned Friday evening from a two weeks' visit with their son, Claude, in Portland.

Miss Emma Henkle of Portland was a guest at the W. H. Walker home a few hours Sunday, coming here to see the ex-mayor who has been quite ill.

Major and Mrs. Lewis Rose left Saturday for England. Enroute for New York where they will board ship February 3, they will visit in California and New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Drexler entertained the Owls last Monday evening. Enough additional guests were invited to make up five tables at cards. The evening was passed pleasantly over the whist tables. A splendid luncheon closed the evening.

Mrs. Armine Young was given a judgment of $1250 against Eph and Effie Young, parents of her husband, for alienation of his affections by a jury in Judge Belt's court this week. It is understood that should a new trial be denied that appeal will be taken.

Last Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Adah chapter, O. E. S., J. G. McIntosh and J. B. V. Butler of Monmouth were taken thru the labyrinth of the order. At the next meeting the male members are to entertain the ladies. It is expected that ample amusement will be provided by the sterner sex.

While here from their Eastern Oregon home, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. De Armond have been the recipients of numerous social attentions among them being a beautifully appointed dinner over which Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henkle presided. The dinner party was followed with an enjoyable "line party" at the Isis.

Another delightful function was an evening at cards for which Mr. and Mrs. Claude Skinner and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walker were hosts at the Skinner home. Close friends of the honorees were invited to make up several tables of auction 500.

ITS CONTRARY EFFECT

"It is funny what the philosophers insist about poverty."
"What is that?"
"They say it gives one's character such rich opportunities."
