SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

Mrs. McMillan of Portland is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Burroughs.

Dr. H. C. Dunsmore spent last week end in Portland with the O. A. Macy family.

Workmen are busy breaking ground for the new wing of the dormitory at the Normal, the contract for which was let some time ago. Some particularly desirable features of this addition lie in the fact that there will be four or five attractive apartments which may be occupied by members of the faculty, and the very agreeable fact that 200 girls in all may then be cared for in the dormitory.

Mrs. F. A. Spurr returned Sunday from California where she passed the winter with her daughter. Mrs. Spurr says she had a most delightful time but she's mighty glad to get back home.

Miss Bessie Stilwell was home from O. A. C. last week end.

Charles and John Atwater formerly of Airlie have established a shoe repairing shop in Monmouth.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith were dinner hosts for Mr. and Mrs. George Girard, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Becker and C. B. Stevens.

Mrs. H. D. Brunk believes in loganberries and expects to have a supply of loju as she has just finished ransplanting two lots to the delicious berry.

Mrs. Dair of San Francisco is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Buena Vista.

Mesdames W. J. Clark, Grover Mattison and Harvey left Tuesday for Portland and a trip over the Columbia Highway.

The S. P. has ordered twelve new red cars for use on its electric lines. They cost $37,000 each.

Miss Brittie McDeavitt of Portland is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Conkey.

Mrs. Ella Lines Wheeler and Edith Lines formerly of this place but now of Portland attended the funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth Butler last week.

A number of Independence movie fans attended Mack Sennett's "A Small Town Idol" at the Oregon in Salem last Saturday and Sunday nights. They report a wonderful show.

Verd Hill and S. H. McElmurry of Independence and E. R. Woods of Kings Valley have been summoned for federal grand jury service in Portland April 25.

The mayor, fire chief and one of the councilmen of Independence were in Lebanon one day last week to inspect the fire fighting equipment of our town. Lebanon's fire equipment is now ahead of most towns of its size, and these officials came to look it over with a view to purchasing similar apparatus.

Merle Brown of Portland spent the week end with his brother, Claude.

Runaway Auto Tosses Victims Into Hospital

Selma, Ala.—Hugh Mauldin and James Oglesby are recovering from injuries sustained when their automobile ran wild and did not stop until it had thrown them out inside the door of a local hospital. The car leaped a 14-inch curb, climbed a foot and a half terrace and uprooted two trees in its wild dash for the hospital entrance. Doctors there dressed their wounds, Oglesby having his nose almost cut off. The car was totally wrecked.

FLAGS TRAIN, AVERTS WRECK

Unidentified Hero Disappears After Saving Fast Train From Being Thrown in Ditch.

Casper, Wyo.—Westbound Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train No. 30 was narrowly saved from a serious wreck by an unidentified man who flagged the train as it was approaching a part of the track a few miles east of here that had been torn up. The train was traveling fifty miles an hour at the time and railroad officials said that the train would have been ditched completely had it struck the torn-up track.

Who was responsible for the attempted wrecking of the Burlington train is still a complete mystery, according to police and railroad officials. It was thought possible that the person who flagged the train was originally one of the party intending to wreck it, for when the train stopped and its crew made an investigation no one could be found.

The spikes had been pulled out of the ties and the rails torn up completely for nearly 100 feet, only four miles from Casper.
