"Hurrah! Three little exemptions."

Arch Justin is in the shop again after several days' "tractor fixin'."

While attending a party in Salem April 1, Miss Dorothy Fitchard parked her Ford in front of the Moose hall. When she returned it was gone—not the Moose hall, but the Ford. It was no April fool for it is still missing.

The Stewart Motor Co. reports the sale of Ford products to the following pleased patrons: C. L. Burbank, Airlie, touring car; Geo. Niggle, Monmouth, touring car; G. T. Boothby, sedan; Lola Record, Monmouth, coupe; Al-fred Yungen, touring; J. Mitoma, roadster; F. R. Tinafrock, tractor; Kullander & Kullander, touring; J. W. Buster, Alsea, touring.

SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

K. C. Eldridge returned Wednesday from Portland.

The Auxiliary to the American Legion met in regular session last evening.

While trying to crank a Ford the car outranked the man and as a result Dean Baughman is wearing his cranking arm in a sling.

Helma of Ashwood, in the herd of McArthur and Stauff of Rickreall, made the unusual record of producing 2030 pounds of milk and 94 pounds of butterfat on official test during the month of March.

The Paramount super-special, "The Kentuckian," one of the most interesting and thrilling of moving picture plays will be at the Grand in Salem Sunday.

The B. Y. P. U. will enjoy a hayrack ride and picnic Saturday night.

The Civic Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Oliver Smith Wednesday, April 27. Mrs. D. P. McCarthy will present a paper on "The Temples of Japan."

Miss Vera Johnson, a teacher in the Falls City schools, was home last week end.

Mesdames E. F. Black and F. L. Chown will entertain the Buena Vista Rural Club at the home of Mrs. Black next Thursday.

O. A. Kreamer and George Conkey were business visitors in Dallas Wednesday.

Mrs. O. A. Kreamer and daughter, Miss Madeleine, went to Eugene Tuesday to visit Mrs. K's mother, Mrs. Richardson.

There will be services at the Baptist church Saturday night, Sunday morning and evening. The Rev. Dr. Reid will speak. There will be no service Monday evening.

Mrs. C. O. Sloper and Mrs. S. Taylor Jones were in Salem Monday visiting the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Taylor, who is receiving treatment at a capital city hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pearson and Mrs. O. Miller of Portland were Sunday guests at the S. Taylor Jones home.

A party consisting of Rev. Harold Hull, John Henkle, Loren Steptoe, Ernest Chown and Irwin Stewart started to Aumsville Sunday, but on account of car trouble made Eola their destination.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Reeves and "Grandpa" Adams have returned from Portland where they passed the winter with relatives. Mr. Reeves' health is much better than when he went away in December.

Mrs. McHenry and daughter, Mrs. Frederick, who have been located with Mrs. M. E. Stansberry, have purchased the Bice property on Fourth and E streets.

Nobody experienced the hazards of a losing baseball game last Sunday as the "Japs" failed to show up for the match. A line-up was made with the home boys and a practice game followed. Independence will cross bats with Monmouth Sunday if J. Pluvius is willing.

BACK FIRES

F. A. Cook is a late accessory to the Stewart Motor Co. Mr. Cook lives in Salem and motors over from the capital city for an early morning spin.

Halladay & Justin have just installed a new combination cash register and adding machine. Besides being in a handsome mahogany cabinet the machine not only keeps tab on the cash but also makes a complete register of each department.

An Oregon Ford dealer stalled on his income tax report a few weeks ago. He was expecting a new arrival in the family and in the midst of his work the telephone rang. It was the doctor. "Boy or girl?" the anxious man inquired. "Triplets, my dear sir," came back the voice from the other end of the wire.

THE WOMAN WHO TELLS US she wants another roast "just like the last one" is not a rarity here. In fact she's quite numerous. There's a reason. We never take advantage of a young woman's lack of experience to palm off inferior meat on her. Hence she trusts our judgment and good faith. Besides we haven't any poor meat to palm off if we wanted to. We don't handle that kind at all.
