INDEPENDENCE

A. L. Keeney of Salem, who purchased the Henkle undertaking establishment, will arrive with his family tomorrow. Mr. Keeney comes highly recommended and is said to be very thorough in his work. He has been connected with the Rigdon establishment and while in the service two years Mr. Keeney had valuable experience in his line. Independence people are pleased to know that he has purchased a lot on Monmouth street with a view to building a residence chapel soon.

Where City Water Goes.
Martins Ferry, O.—In days before prohibition the pumping station could keep the city reservoir filled all night, but of late the heaviest drain on the system comes then. Operators on moonshine stills are said to be letting the water run over the coils for cooling purposes from ten to twelve hours at a time, and there are so many stills running that it is a tax on the city's supply.

SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

O. A. Kreamer went to Portland Wednesday.

Jack Van Ness of Portland was here Sunday visiting former Independence friends.

The Tom Cliffords returned Saturday from a several weeks' visit in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dancy and Mrs. Grace Hussey of Salem were guests at the L. Damon home Monday. Mrs. Halie Parrish Hinges of the Capital City was also a recent guest of the Damons.

Mrs. A. L. Thomas entertained the Needlecrafters at a very pleasant session yesterday afternoon.

Miss Arbuhtnot spoke at a teachers' meeting in Salem last Saturday. Miss Lola Records was on program at a teachers' institute at Yamhill the same day.

E. E. Paddock is expecting his family to arrive from Seattle about May 15. As the Paddock residence is occupied the family will probably reside in Salem indefinitely.

Mrs. K. C. Eldridge and Deloss motored to Portland Sunday to join in celebrating K. C. III's fourth birthday. They returned Monday accompanied by K. C. III.

Clarence Irwin was arrested by Sheriff Orr last Friday for operating a still at Pedee. He was fined $250 and given 20 days in jail.

The J. G. McIntoshes and Davidsons expect to go to Corvallis Sunday where the Mrs. Susan Jones family will prepare a birthday festival in celebration of Mrs. McIntosh's birthday.

Mrs. Bertha King and friend, Mrs. Blackwood, of Portland were guests at the J. S. Bohannon home. Mrs. King returned to Portland Monday. Mrs. Blackwood remained here the entire week.

A contract has been signed with Independence authorizing the Normal to conduct the schools as practice centers for the next two years. Mountain View and Elkins have likewise entered into a similar contract.

The hearing of C. Burton Durdall, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, will be held in the justice court before Judge Unruh in Salem at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Mr. Durdall is at liberty on a $1000 bond.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hibbs, Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. DeArmond, Mesdames A. L. Thomas, C. A. McLaughlin, J. N. Jones, Erl Ruef, Sara C. Young, C. W. Henkle, O'Rourke and Mr. H. Hirschberg were in the Capital City Tuesday.

The Newt Jones enjoyed a visit last Sunday from Mrs. Susan Jones and her daughters, Misses Katharyn and Grace of Corvallis and Miss Helen Jones, a student in the High School of that place. In the afternoon the house party was augmented by the J. G. McIntoshes, the A. D. Davidsons and "Daddy" Hedges.

Last Friday while on her way to the Oak Point school full of the spirit her name indicates, Edna Joy jumped across a stream and fractured two bones in her right ankle. The girl is about 14 years of age and it is feared the injury will arrest her ambitions for the remainder of the school year.

Develop Your Home State by Patronizing Your Railroads

The development of Oregon and its Railroad Transportation service is a matter of importance to you. A vital factor in the development of Western Oregon is the Southern Pacific Company.

Did You Know

Southern Pacific payrolls in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	$11,083,755.93
Southern Pacific purchases in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	4,519,888.00
Southern Pacific taxes paid in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	1,110,038.86
Southern Pacific total distribution in Oregon for 1920 amounted to	$16,713,681.79

Southern Pacific is the largest payer of taxes in Western and Southern Oregon. Southern Pacific taxes average 7 per cent of all taxes paid in every county through which it operates.

To continue these payrolls, purchases, taxes, and provide better facilities and convenient, safe, rapid and frequent service is the aim of that Company.

Why not travel on Southern Pacific trains and do your part to enable that Company to keep pace with the further development of Oregon.
