

Announcement

To the many Independence friends and customers of the Fullerton Store of Salem, we take great pleasure in announcing that we have bought the store formerly owned by Mr. Fullerton:

In addition to the high grade lines of LADIES' COATS and SUITS, which our predecessor handled and which have been giving such wonderful satisfaction, we have put in a complete line of Dresses, Skirts, Waists and Blouses. Together with these additions and our well equipped Corset and Hosiery department, we are now in a position to outfit the most discriminating woman to her entire satisfaction.

Good Shoe News

We are sure you will be glad to learn that we are still carrying QUEEN QUALITY SHOES and that they are still being fitted by our expert shoe man, Mr. Graber. The quality and excellent construction of this line of shoes, together with the expert fitting, insure you STYLE, SERVICE and above all, FOOT COMFORT, all of which are absolutely essential to complete satisfaction in foot-wear.

In our Shoe Department you will find a complete line of Dr. Scholl's foot appliances and a man who understands their uses and how to fit them. Come to us for the good of your feet.

We extend to you a very cordial invitation to call and see us. We want you to feel at home in our store whether you are buying or not.

SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

Wm. Dawes and daughter, Miss Edith, visited in Salem Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard visited relatives in Falls City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chown visited in McMinnville Sunday.

C. S. Hamilton of Salem is starting a big furniture readjustment sale tomorrow.

Maxine shoes at the Buster Brown Shoe Store combine style and quality, class and character.

Claire Irvine, Elmer Addison and D. E. Fletcher were in Portland Wednesday.

E. F. Black was in Lebanon on business this week.

Mrs. Worl Butler is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Smith in Corvallis.

The S. B. Walkers moved this week into the W. H. Walker property on Monmouth and Sixth.

Mrs. S. Taylor Jones was hostess to the Ladies Aid of the Christian church yesterday afternoon.

The fire department was called to the George Conkey residence Wednesday noon. There was nothing more serious than a flue fire which was easily extinguished.

Valiton's announcement in this paper is happily received by the Post's large number of readers. Valiton's, the delightful store of exclusive styles and good quality of goods, is found at the Fullerton corner, and the place is full of new goods. S. H. Grigg, the new manager, has had vast experience in establishments of this kind in the East and Middle West. He knows just how to please the people with correct merchandise. Mr. Grigg is enthusiastic about Oregon, and about Salem, but most of all about Valiton's location and the success of the establishment.

Mrs. S. Taylor Jones opened her home to the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon. Roll call was responded to by current events. As a special request the quotations on "Club Spirit" were repeated. During routine business, delegates to the Annual State Federation which convenes in Pendleton May 31, June 1, 2, 3, were elected. In addition to the president, Mrs. Clyde Ecker, who by virtue of her office is a delegate, Mrs. S. Taylor Jones and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge were chosen. Mrs. H. B. Fletcher and Mrs. Pember of Monmouth were elected alternates. The president, who is privileged to name her alternate, deferred the matter. Mrs. Louie Rose, who had been invited to speak about her recent trip abroad, was unable to be present but has consented to speak at some other meeting. Mrs. Joseph Rogers, who is an active member of the Oak Point Club gave an inspirational talk on their methods of obtaining a club house.

The Rexall people met in convention at Seattle this week. One of the best representatives in the assembly was Clyde Williams, proprietor of the Williams Drug Company. Mr. Williams left Sunday night for the Washington city. May 24 and 25 the Rexalls will convene in Portland. At this time Abe Becker will represent this popular drug store.

Pearl Alexander, former grocer of Independence, who has been living in Montana for the past seven years, was in Salem last evening. He drove over the mountains from Montana and will spend some time looking around in the Willamette valley for a location. Mr. Alexander said it was snowing when he left Montana and he does not want to go back there again only to remain long enough to move his family.—Salem Capital Journal (Wednesday).
