

SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

Maple $6 delivered. Dickson & Wood. 1-4t

E. L. Bradner of Seattle was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bradner here this week.

Work is progressing on the High School gymnasium. The plumbing is being done by C. McBeth.

J. T. Elmore of Albany has purchased the Felix Wattenbarger farm at Hopville. The deal was made through the Independence Realty Co.

The Normal took part in the tennis tournament held in Albany last Friday afternoon. Miss Dorcas Conklin won the ladies' singles there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clodfelter and son of Jefferson, J. C. Gardner and wife of Salem and Arthur Griffa of Portland were here Tuesday for the funeral of Mrs. Griffa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bohannon returned Sunday from a visit with their daughters, Mrs. Harry T. Smith of Portland and Mrs. Horn of Newberg. They were accompanied by young Billy Horn. Dr. Horn left Thursday for Canada and expects to purchase a ranch and enter into ranch life.

H. Hirschberg and Ira Mix motored to Portland for the week end vacation.

C. A. Lochridge was here last week visiting his mother, Mrs. M. J. Bulloch. Mr. Lochridge expects to locate somewhere in Washington.

Miss Joy Turner announces a violin and piano musical by her pupils in the Normal chapel for Wednesday, June 8th. A number of Independence young folks will take part in the musicale.

Q. G. Reeves and wife and two sons, Spencer and Glenn, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Pipen of Portland were guests at the L. G. Reeves home last Sunday.

R. E. Hereford and family went to Woodburn Tuesday. Mrs. H. will spend the summer with relatives there. Later they will probably locate either in Salem or Portland.

Card of Thanks

We deeply appreciate the many offers of assistance and the beautiful floral offerings tendered during the illness and burial of our beloved one, and want to express our lasting gratitude. C. G. Griffa

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Clodfelter
Mr. and Mrs. C. McBeth.

ALL HE BROUGHT

She had invited the violinist to dinner. "You didn't bring your violin," she exclaimed when he arrived. "No. All I brought was my appetite."

ITS RESULT.

"There was one fact which gave color to the deportation scheme of the government."
"What was that?"
"It gave the reds the blues."

THE REASON.

"Why does that orator walk two or three times across the stage before he begins to speak?"
"I suppose it is the pre-amble to his remarks."
