OAK POINT "FAIR" PROVES SUCCESS

A beautiful fresco event was the Oak Point "Country Fair", staged by the Community Service Woman's Club, last Friday evening. The grounds around the community house were as picturesque as an oriental garden. Uniform fir trees and cherry trees with tempting ripe fruit "sprang up over night". Hundreds of Japanese lanterns were festooned through the fir boughs and the whole produced a most pleasing effect. Attractive booths were arranged ad lib over the garden. Each booth was prettily decorated with vines and blossoms and from a number, delicious eats, including weinies, hamburger sandwiches, cottage cheese, baked beans, and doughnuts made by Mrs. E. M. Young, the kind everyone likes. Strawberries and cream, pies, ice cream, candy 'n everything. For real thrills there was a fortune teller, a real one imported from Salem, who never failed to relate something pleasing. Then the great "stock show" which had been so long heralded. There was a variety of blooded cattle, a Jersey—nothing more than a jersey jacket. When you looked at the Holsteins, you saw a whole stein. You were glad it wasn't empty. The Durham was represented by Durham tobacco just the kind some folks like. The "long-horn" and "short-horn" were represented by long and short mounted horns. The wild woman continues to be an object of much mystery. The wild boar from Africa was nothing more than one of the club members making a raging, roaring noise with rosin on a string. A dressed chicken brought $7.50. It is said that when one of the very prominent club members asked a hired man who gets $3 per if he could dress a chicken and he replied "not

Burial of George T. Boothby at Monmouth Thursday

George T. Boothby, a young 21 years of age, was killed in a sawmill accident at Tillamook, Monday, June 13. The body arrived here yesterday and was cared for by funeral director A. L. Keeney. The funeral services were held from the Christian church in Monmouth Thursday at 11 a. m. Committal followed in the K. P. cemetery. The young man is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Boothby of Carlton and an uncle, George T. of Monmouth.

The members of the Sewing Club Class of the Christian church were entertained at the home of Mrs. S. C. Halladay last Wednesday afternoon. The birthdays of two of the members, Mrs. S. Taylor Jones and Mrs. George Wood, were celebrated in a festive way. Mrs. Halladay had the festal board beautifully arranged with flowers and two large birthday cakes bearing lighted tapers. Just how many candles the cakes bore has not been divulged. The two honorrees cut the birthday cakes and in addition strawberries, whipped cream, cakes and coffee were served, and Mrs. Halladay received many expressions of gratitude for the delightful afternoon.

on $3 per". But the chicken was dressed and everybody took a chance. Oak Point people never do things by halves. They are too full of community spirit. They drew people to the "fair" from Salem, Buena Vista and Dallas and Independence went en masse. The ladies took in $150.00. The net receipts will be used for community interests. The Independence orchestra furnished music and the school staged a clever playlet. Other vocal and instrumental numbers were interspersed during the evening.

Graduation Exercises of Independence High School

Amid charming decorations of blue and gold and with the class motto "Finished, yet beginning" prominently displayed, the graduation exercises of the Independence High School were held at the Methodist church last Friday evening. Supt. O. D. Byers presented the class of sixteen.

The members of the class include: Helen Turnbull, Marjorie Reynolds, Edna Burch, Muriel Wilson, Kathleen Skinner, Faye Walker, Sec.; Edith Pleasinger, Melvin Ray, Glenn Burright, president; Robt. Craven, Julius Jorgensen, Gerald Hewitt, Erma Boughey, Lulu Grigsby, treasurer; Cyril Reynolds, Alice Ruch, vice president.

The class address was ably delivered by Prof. F. W. Berchtold. D. E. Fletcher, chairman of the school board, presented the diplomas. The high school orchestra played some pleasing numbers. Mrs. C. W. Irvine and Miss Dorothy Ruef rendered delightful vocal numbers and Glen Burright, class president, added pleasantly to the program with a violin solo.

Hugh Hanna Suburban Home Scene of Festivity

The suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hanna was the scene of a delightful social function last Wednesday evening when Mrs. Hanna entertained for the critic teachers and the student teachers of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades of which Miss Devore is supervisor. Hanging baskets of pink sweet peas and ferns were effectively used over the rooms and pink candles also supported the pretty scheme. Japanese lanterns were used profusely on the Colonial porch and gave an appearance of delightful festivity. Mrs. Hanna was capably assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Dole Pomeroy and Miss Madeleine Kreamer. A number of novelty games also furnished diversion. The guests enjoyed a group of vocal selections by Miss Madeleine Kreamer. There were twenty guests bidden and the hostess served a delicious two course luncheon to complete her charming hospitality.

Mrs. K. C. Eldridge entertained Wednesday afternoon to celebrate her 36th wedding anniversary. A coterie of friends gathered at the beautiful home to wish their hostess many returns of the happy day and to enjoy the splendid hospitality she graciously dispensed.

The Methodist Ladies gave another one of their splendid dinners last evening. Everyone declares it was the "best ever".

Miss Freida Campbell who has been in France the past year will sail from Havre for the good old U. S. A. July 6th.

Mrs. E. C. Bradner left Thursday for Seattle.

COMPANY K OFF FOR CAMP LEWIS

Tuesday the streets of Independence were all agog with khaki clad lads of Company K, making ready to join other national guard troops for the field instruction at Camp Lewis where they will remain until June 29. K Company 56 strong left on a troop special at 5 p. m. Many fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, uncles, aunts, cousins and sweethearts were at the station to cheer them and bid them a fond good-bye. The members of Company K were guests of the Portland units at the armory Tuesday evening, cots having been provided for K and other companies. K boys left Portland for Camp Lewis at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday morning on special train No. 3.

Members of the Company who went include:

Mrs. Andy Wilson Joins the Silent Majority Beyond

Mrs. Andy Wilson passed away at her home in North Independence last Tuesday evening, following a lingering illness. Funeral services under the direction of A. L. Keeney were held from the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon. Dr. Dunsmore spoke comforting words to the sorrowing relatives. Committal followed at the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Lydia M. Crouse was born in Wayne county, Ohio, May 8, 1849. She was married to Andrew Wilson in Lincoln, Neb., in 1874. They came to Oregon the same year. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. J. W. Bell, Mrs. E. A. Simmons and Mrs. F. A. Green, twelve grand children and two great grand children. How sad and bereft is the home that was gladdened by the devoted mother. She has only passed beyond to await the loved ones left here for a season. "Time touched her eyes and stole from us that love-light brighter than the dawn. Death touched her with his grasping hand and like them all she passed away. She now hath her repose and seems to reach from out the depths to Paradise."

Miss Betty Stillwell is home from O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schumacher visited in Oregon City Sunday.

Miss Gretchen Kreamer will leave tonight via Seasta limited for Berkeley Cal., where she goes to take a special course in music.

Verd Morgan returned home after spending four months with his brother, Jesse, in Washington.

Mrs. Philips of Monmouth entertained the Altar Society Thursday afternoon.
