Lamar Tooze Will Get Degree from Harvard

Salem—Lamar Tooze will be the only Oregon man to be graduated from the law department of Harvard university this year, according to a telegram received by his parents. He will take the examination for admission to the Oregon bar in July and later will engage in the practice of law in Portland.

Lamar and Leslie Tooze, twin brothers, entered Harvard law school in September 1916, and at the outbreak of the war enlisted and entered training camps.

Lieutenant Lamar Tooze, at the close of the war, was chief intelligence officer of the 364th infantry regiment of the 91st division. He was in the battles of the Argonne and it was his fortune to help bury his twin brother on the battlefield at Eclisfontain, France.

Powell Reunion at Albany Last Sunday

Albany—More than 200 persons from various sections of the Willamette valley, descendants of John A. Powell and his brothers who crossed the plains to Oregon in 1851, met Sunday in annual family reunion on the original Powell donation claim eight miles east of Albany.

The members of this family have organized the Powell Memorial Society and have decided to hold a reunion at this place annually.

Prunes Said to be Good for Dairy Cows

As a butter producing food there is nothing wrong with prunes, according to O. B. Nichols, member of the Oregon Growers' Cooperative Association. He says that cows like dried prunes and that the butter is of good quality, color, and flavor, well granulated and eburns easily. After first trying to break the prune pits, the cows soon learn to swallow the whole prunes into the first stomach, Mr. Nichols says. She then regurgitates the prunes after they have become softened, separates the meat from the pits and then drops the pits from the mouth. He says he knows as he has emptied a lot of prune pits from the feed box.
