

SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

The Post prints hop checks.

Word Butler made a business trip to Portland last week end.

Dr. F. G. Hewett and two sons, Frederick and Gerald, left Wednesday for the Coast.

Jack Tate, formerly salesman for the Stewart Motor Co., is now located in Albany.

Miss Hazel Calbreath has been visiting Miss Helen Butler at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Robt. Smith, of Corvallis.

C. E. Smith is again with the Stewart Motor Co. Mr. Smith is head salesman for the company. He is a man who meets the public well and will undoubtedly make a success of salesmanship.

You have been watching this paper for big news of the Consumers Trading House of Salem. Here it is. The entire stock is in the hands of G. W. Kelly, the world's greatest bargain giver. Thousands were at the opening Thursday and bought seasonable dependable goods at a mere fraction of their worth. Read the ad in this paper and go and do likewise.

The Sayles Motor Car Company is arranging for a Lexington demonstration.

E. F. Black made a business trip to Lebanon this week.

The J. G. McIntoshes and A. D. Davidsons left Sunday for a two weeks' sojourn at Bar View. They will be domiciled at the Davidson cottage, "Fern Cliff."

Kafoury Brothers of Salem are calling Post readers' attention to the fact that autumn days are just around the corner. This popular house is showing correct styles in new fall suits, coats and dresses for women and Misses, also apparel for children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Aylesworth arrived Wednesday to visit Mrs. Aylesworth's sister, Mrs. B. R. Wolfe. The Aylesworths have disposed of their Portland property and are enroute to California where they will make their home.

Just to show his versatility O. A. Kreamer is selling suitable suits one minute and repairing jewelry the next. Mr. K declares there's nothing like variety for interest but his varied occupations will cease as soon as A. L. Kullander returns to his jewelry store.

CITY INSURES EMPLOYEES

Group insurance to the amount of $1,500,000 has been taken out by the city of Calgary, Alberta, to cover employees in case of death, sickness, accident or any other cause. Calgary is at present the largest city in Canada providing this form of protection for employees. A feature of the group plan is that many uninsurable persons are thereby included for insurance who would otherwise be debarred.

HAS RELIC OF SITTING BULL

South Dakota State Historical Society Presented With Famous Chief's Pipe of Peace.

The famous old pipe of peace of the Indian chief, Sitting Bull, has been presented to the South Dakota State Historical society by H. C. Pryor of the Aberdeen Normal school.

On the stem of the relic, burned or inked into the wood, is the autograph of the warrior. The bowl of the pipe is of pink sandstone from the quarries at Pipestone, Minn. The stem is about twenty inches long, and is of ash wood. The pipe was traded to Mr. Pryor's father, I. D. Pryor, now a resident of Los Angeles, by Sitting Bull, at Camp Crook in 1887, for a blanket.

The story goes that Sitting Bull had just been released from prison at Fort Randall, and was making his way northward to the reservation. Always ready to pick up a few dollars, he stopped off at Pierre, S. D., and started a flourishing business selling his autographed cards at $1 each. It seems that his name was about the only thing Sitting Bull could write in English, and he was very proud of it. Some one induced him to step into the telegraph office there and write his name on a number of harmless looking message blanks. The Indian's anger rose to white heat when he discovered that carbon had been inserted between several sheets under the one on which he wrote.

Big Alligator Negroes' Prize.
Two negroes were attacked by a huge alligator in West Caney swamps, near Orange, Texas. The big saurian, which measured ten feet, chased one of the negroes up a tree. The other negro in the meantime placed eight bullets in the center of its head. The negroes, who had encountered the alligator while fishing, returned to the spot where the battle occurred next morning, and found it dead. They towed it through the marshes to the northern limits of the city.

POPULAR SCIENCE

Interchangeable gelatine slides feature a new lamp for lighting store windows with any color tint or combinations of tints desired.

Recent experiments of injecting appendicitis patients with serum are said to have been so successful that operations with the knife may soon be abolished.

Wasps' nests are said to take fire very often because of chemical action of the wax on the material of the nest itself. This might explain some mysterious fires.

No Tomb-stones HERE

There was no graveyard sensation at the opening day of this sale. Yesterday, this store was as crazy as the New York City Grand Central Terminal waiting room on the day a National delegation arrives to attend a Grand Lodge session. People walked all over each others' corns but everybody smiled because they were getting something for almost nothing.

This ad is an appeal to the man and woman of the people. If you are an aristocrat who wishes to pay three times the worth of an article just to show off it will not appeal to you. But if you are a red-blooded American who likes to get all he can for his money, you WILL NOT MISS THIS SALE.
