

SHORT STORIES OF TOWN AND COUNTRY

Prof. and Mrs. Milne and three children and Mrs. Packard of Eugene were Sunday guests at the Joseph Rogers home. Mr. Milne is mathematics teacher in the U. of O. and Mr. Packard occupies the chair of geology.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Godfrey and little Miss Barbara Godfrey returned the last of the week from a fortnight's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Tracy of Portland were recent guests of the J. W. Rogers.

The Misses Emma and Freida Laird of Eugene were motor guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Keeney last week end.

Miss Elda Briston of Pleasant Hill, Oregon, passed last week with her relatives, the A. L. Keeneys.

A swimming party composed of the Misses Loeta Rogers, Dorothy Fitchard, Mr. Rombo of Wendling, Oregon, and Mrs. Chas. Fitchard enjoyed the sports at Spong's Landing Sunday. There were four hundred bathers participating in the aquatic pleasures of the beach.

Rev. and Mrs. Proppe and baby went to Portland Monday and spent the week. Rev. Proppe went to the Oregon Baptist State Convention at Columbia City and Mrs. Proppe and Junior visited with her mother.

Mrs. Joseph Rogers passed the week end with Portland friends.

Miss Emma Henkle was here for a brief visit last week end. She had just returned from a visit with friends in Seattle, Tacoma and Vancouver, B. C.; also in eastern Oregon. Miss Henkle was enroute to Roseburg where she will visit a college friend. The middle of September she will enter Columbia University, New York, having already completed preliminary arrangements.

Miss Norma Calbreath, a recent graduate of the Monmouth normal, will teach in the La-Grande schools the coming year. She has been engaged to teach the third grade at a very attractive salary. Miss Calbreath is a most capable young lady and her friends are happy that she has secured such a desirable position.

Mrs. F. L. Chown received the sad news last week of the death of her father, Mr. A. D. Green, of Waterbury, Nebraska.

Joe Windsor of Marshfield was a mid-week guest at the Chas. Calbreath home.

Baptist Church Announcements

Our growing and large Sunday school meets at 10 a. m., Mr. Art Justin, superintendent. At 11 a. m. Rev. Chas. A. Waehlte of Larkspur preaches. Mr. Waehlte will be with us one week to conduct Bible conferences and studies in Book of Revelation. That book you so long wanted to study and have explained. Here is your opportunity.

Our B. Y. P. U., the growing Young People's Society, meets at 7 p. m. sharp.

At 8 p. m. Rev. Waehlte preaches again and each succeeding night for the rest of the week. You will want to hear him so plan now on coming. Bring your pencils and Bibles and note books. Good music and singing.

"There's More Real Satisfaction"
says the Good Judge

In a little of the Real Tobacco Chew, than you ever got out of the ordinary kind.

The good rich taste lasts so long you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—that's why it costs you less to chew this class of tobacco.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
