

MISS ELIZABETH LEVY, who delighted a large audience at the Library benefit last Friday night, by the capable and gracious manner in which she conducted the orchestra. Miss Levy, who is an artist with the violin, has consented to play a solo for Independence people in the near future.

The other numbers of the program were pleasing and the neat little sum of about $30.00 was realized for the library.

GRAND ONE Monday
THEATRE NIGHT OCT. 31st
SALEM

Ralph Dunbar's
"ROBIN HOOD"

Now completing its Trans-Continental Tour

A Musical Sensation

60 PEOPLE 60
10 piece ORCHESTRA 10

Lower Floor and Three Rows Balcony.....$2.00
 Last Two Rows Balcony.....$1.50
 Gallery (not reserved).....$1.00
Seat Sale Saturday, Oct. 29. Mail Orders Now
 Add 10 per cent to above for War Tax

WALL PAPER

Wonderful new high grade
 moderate prices

Wall Paper

Max O. Buren

179 N. Commercial SALEM, ORE.

Subscribe For Your Home Town Paper

LOCAL BREVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dickinson and Mrs. Perl Hedges spent the week-end in Portland.

Gaylord Godfrey and wife and Mrs. Irvine Baun motored to Portland for the week-end.

Mrs. Sara Claggett Young was home from Albany last weekend.

If you're going to put in a furnace, try a pipeless one. C. S. Hamilton of Salem will give you a demonstration.

There will be a Civil Service examination at Dallas and Independence on November 26th to fill the position of rural carrier at Dallas.

Mrs. D. D. Davis and daughter Claire were in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Shalor Eldridge are here visiting the home folks.

The W. R. C. will have dinner at their hall on Friday, Nov. 4th. After dinner a special meeting will be held at 2:30. All members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. are urged to attend. Don't forget the date, Friday, Nov. 4.

"Let it rain." That's the feeling you will have if you provide yourself with one of those Tweed-O-Wool suits at Valiton's in Salem. In one of these suits you can look your best—also look appropriate.

Methodist Services

Preaching services every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and evening at 7:30.

Sunday School meets at 10 a. m.

Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Ladies Aid every Thursday afternoon. You will find a welcome at these services.

Leader for the Epworth League service, W. G. Grant. Topic: "Two things we know about God."

CHILDREN'S SHOES

An Important Subject
 With Us

We consider Children's Shoes from Mother's angle---for we know that mother knows.

The Shoes must fit properly---possess style---and give satisfaction.

WE WILL BE PLEASED TO SERVE YOU

SHOES FOR MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN

Buster Brown Shoe Store

SALEM, OREGON

MAIL ORDERS CAREFULLY FILLED

"Oregon Life"

FOR

OREGONIANS

A Representative will Call Soon