Highland Social Club

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Brandt were hostesses on Saturday evening to members of the Highland Social club. A blazing fire on the hearth lent hospitality to the occasion. Games and music, both vocal and instrumental, furnished the evenings good time. Refreshments were served. Guests present were; Mrs. Rose Evans, Miss Elva Fischer of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morrison and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Stapleton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peyree and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oren McElmurry, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Seeley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Brandt and daughter Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stapleton and son, Dean Howe, Messrs George Stapleton, Henry McElmurry, Paul Scott and Pearl Alexander.

It is one of our great national facts that every scrap of metal which has ever received the stamp of legality from a United States mint is good until defaced or redeemed. There are therefore a great many thousand dollars' worth of old-fashioned coins wandering around which no one ever thinks of trying to spend or would agree to take, except as a curiosity. The principal of these are the old silver 5 and 3-cent pieces, the nickel 3-cent piece and the bronze 2-cent piece, says the New York Sun.

Askance is looked more and more frequently at the larger silver coins with the seated figure of Liberty, and even the "nickel" with the figure "5" which ceased to be coined in 1883, while the Jonah of the whole family is the still perfectly legal tender half-cent, coined between the years 1793 and 1857. What would happen if a busy trolley conductor were tendered ten of these as a fare at the rush hour may best be left to the imagination. The smallest check ever issued by the United States treasury is one for "1 cent," mailed a few years ago to a San Francisco wag who stood on his constitutional right to present two bronze half cents for redemption.

NO PROTEST

"Here's a note yer feller wants me to take t' you. He give me a nickel."
"That's probably interest on the note."

Seek John Calvin's Grave.

The spot where John Calvin, the Protestant reformer and theologian, is buried, in Geneva, Switzerland, is being sought by the authorities on information furnished by a man who says he is a descendant of Calvin. The location of the grave has been handed down through the Calvin family under pledge of secrecy, according to the man, who is seventy-one years of age, and as he is without issue he believed it his duty to divulge the location to the ecclesiastical consistory at Geneva.

Tradition has it that John Calvin, who died on May 27, 1564, was buried "in the common cemetery in Geneva called 'Platin-Palais,' but the exact spot has not been identified.

Birth Interests Medical Men.

A Berlin woman gave birth to two healthy girls. Mother and babies were doing well when a third girl was born, seven weeks later. According to the latest reports the whole family are doing well. The unusual side of the case is that the third child is alive and doing well. Usually, a retarded birth results in the death of the child. Cases of twins born a short time after each other are fairly common, but not so with triplets.

Women are still without the right to hold constitutional office in Massachusetts. This was the ruling of Attorney General Allen. He held that the Nineteenth amendment to the federal Constitution served only to give women the right to vote and did not alter the state constitutional requirement that men only are eligible for constitutional offices. The ruling was made because several legislative seats are to be filled next fall and women were said to be contemplating becoming candidates in some places.—New York Times.
